

Court Gives Skid Row Lawyer 2nd Reform Chance

CHICAGO (AP)—An attorney who was given a second chance after 30 months as a skid row derelict has given this advice to another unfortunate:

"Stay out of those saloons."

The attorney is William G. Wood.

WELCOME TO EUGENE
EUGENE MOTEL ASSN.

Wood gave the advice Monday to a drunk who appeared in Monroe Street Court, where the grey-haired, still distinguished looking lawyer went to work as a judge's helper.

Later, Wood promised Judge Hyman Feldman that he would follow the advice he gave the other unfortunate.

65, who was counsel for the Chicago Elevated Railways and a professor at Kent College of Law before he started drinking "over troubles at home."

Sober and neat in a white shirt, tie and clean suit, Wood sat beside Judge Feldman while the judge decided the cases of the drunks from West Madison Street's skid row.

News-Review Carrier-Salesmen will start a new coupon system January 27, 1955.

Every carrier-salesman has the above ledger sheet for each customer. The ledger sheet has 12 coupons, one for each month of the year. The last of each month, your carrier collects for the month that he has delivered, with exception of apartment houses, hotels and trailer courts, which are collected one month in advance.

If your paper is delivered by a News-Review motor route, your carrier may collect any time in the month, as it is impossible for them to cover their entire route at end of each month. This coupon is used by thousands of newspapers, with greater success and convenience for both the customer, the carrier and the newspaper.
