A beautiful orchid corsage was presented to Mrs. Hatterscheid who thanked each of the committee chairmen for specific accomplishments, and added observations made during her tenure in office, as she called on them for annual reports. She also gave recognition to the inspiration and cooperation received from the retiring officers, and to Mrs. Frederick J. Porter, publicity chairman, now vacationing in Honolulu.

Mrs. R. C. Herbage, chairman of the baby alumni committee, added recommendations for a next year, gathered from study of other hospitals, to her annual report. Mrs. Edward Bishop reported a successful year for the sewing committee as did Mrs. O. R. Fritz for the membership committee.

Mrs. Ben L. Martin, chairman of the hospitality and service committee, reported a credit of over 1700 hours of service for the Pink Ladies, inaugurated last May. Under hospitality, a Christmas party for the hospital staff was held Dec. 16, in the cafeteria. Mrs. M. Drullner headed the committee and was assisted by Miss Kay Ward and Miss Helen Casey. The program was put on by Miss Casey, Miss Alice Ueland, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. C. S. Heinline and Tony Piazza. Beautiful table decorations were done by Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid.

At the Monday meeting Mrs. J. G. Richmond presented the following awards: to Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid went the first pin given for one hundred hours of service as a Pink Lady and Mrs. Walter Mallory, Mrs. Edward Bishop, Mrs. Paul Ryan, Mrs. A. J. Murray and Miss Bernardine Princen were recipients of fifty hour service badges.

Sister Mary Natalie, Mercy Hospital Administrator, expressed the deep appreciation of the staff and of many of the patients of the service given by the auxiliary members this past year.

Mrs. Ryan presented a gift of one hundred glass snack sets, six cake plates and some silverware to the auxiliary from Paul Ryan and C. M. McDermott, a lace cloth from Mrs. Hatterscheid, and

Coffee Hour Honors Marching Mothers

The Roseburg Jay-Cettes were the hostesses last Sunday for a coffee hour at the VFW Hall on the Garden Valley Road. The coffee hour was in honor of the polio captains and interested workers for the Roseburg and outlying county Mothers' March on Polio. The hall was donated by the VFW for the occasion.

Co-chairmen, Mrs. Robert R. Green and Mrs. Art Pollard Jr., led the discussion as the group formulated their final plans for the March, which is scheduled for Monday evening from 8:15 to 7:15.

Mrs. Rae Britzell, county chairman of the Mothers' March, addressed the visiting chairmen and captains from the various communities throughout the county.

Prior to the discussion period a Helen Hayes polio film entitled,

"They Shall Not Want" was shown. The picture was shown by Pat Sullivan of Umpqua Dairy and the film was made available through the national foundation of polio.

Those in attendance at the polio coffee hour were: Camas Valley: Hazel Thrush; Glide: Mrs. Gilkinson; Dillard: Mrs. George McFall, Darlene Huddleston and Mrs. Sam Croucher; Oakland: Valentine Davis, Dorothy Neeves and Fern Neas; Yoncalla: Mrs. T. W. Ellis; Winston: Betty Jo Brown; Canyonville: Mrs. Leo Davidson; Roseburg: Mrs. E. A. Post, Mrs. W. E. Ott Jr., Mrs. Wm. Tipton, Helen Niday, Ruth Mitchell, Jean Heeter, Mrs. Jack Myers, Mrs. Lewis Wilson, Mrs. Dave Dodge, Pat Nettews, Deloris Horn, Grace Zimmerscheid, Audrey Meyer, Doris Pittman, Mrs. Neil Christian, Aria Wood, Yvonne Ward, Leonna Brown, Mrs. Carl Fair, Mrs. Roy Hebard, Mrs. Robert Caley, Gerry Dent, Sibyl Endicott, Bernice Smith, Edythe Derryberry, Mrs. Ernest Fox and Rena Wilcox.

REV. AND MRS. TILTON ENTERTAIN MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF CHURCH

The Reverend and Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton entertained members and friends of the Methodist Church at an open house Sunday afternoon. Helping to receive the guests were Mr. Tilton's mother, Mrs. A. H. Tilton; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bielle, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gum and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Powell. Daughters Joanne and Judith showed guests about the home.

A number of the guests recalled the first open house just after the parsonage was built about seven years ago when the Reverend and Mrs. Walter McArthur were serving the parish.

Out of town guests were Mrs. O. M. Nicholas of Portland, and Mrs. E. H. Taylor of Laguna Beach, Calif.

The refreshment table was attractively appointed with silver and crystal, centered with pink carnations and matching candles. The buffet held a charming arrangement of deeper pink carnations, heather and harmonizing candles. The beautiful silver tea and coffee service, a gift from the congregation, was used for the first time.

Pouring were Mrs. Robert Harrison, Mrs. Eugene McElroy, Mrs. J. E. Dent and Mrs. Leo Gillett, all chairmen of Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Dean Bubar, Mrs. Harry McClure, Mrs. George Feit, Mrs. Edwin Nolte and Mrs. Cal Dawson.

Next Sunday, Jan. 30, other members and friends are invited to call between the hours of 2:30 and 5:00 p.m. Assisting at that time will be Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Crooch, Mr. and Mrs. John Todd and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiley.

GLENDA LEE RYDER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

A gay gypsy party was held in Winston last Sunday afternoon when a group of young girls in gypsy costume met at the home of Glenda Lee Ryder to celebrate her 11th birthday. Appropriate games were played, including a treasure hunt and fortune telling.

After Glenda Lee opened her gifts the girls gathered in front of the fireplace for a gypsy luncheon, which included the traditional ice cream and cake.

Guests present were Colene Newton, Sue Meredith, Patricia McLennan, Suzanne McLennan, Karen Owens, Dottie Sue Bromley, Marjorie Waters, Sharon Pruitt, Janice Harty, Davila Nichols, Donna Moore, Diana Davidson, Dona Kealy and Alice Jean and Ruth Ann Ryder, sisters of the honoree.
