First speaker of the evening was Mrs. Henry Darby. Speaking on the subject "The Walks in Beauty," Mrs. Darby admitted that although glamour through make-up is often an illusion, and it's possible to get magic out of a bottle, it must be remembered that health is the basis of beauty. "To be beautiful we must work from the inside out," she said.

She gave many interesting beauty secrets suggested by the famous Westmore brothers, adding in conclusion that "beauty that goes beyond the surface adornment lasts through the years."

At the end of her interesting talk, Mrs. Darby passed out samples of face powder, perfume, rouge and hair cream from some well-known cosmetic companies.

The second speaker of the evening, Mrs. William Semmler, presented a humorous talk on the subject "Eating For Fun." She discussed some of the foods used in the preparation of Mexican and Latin dishes and read excerpts from "A Taste of Texas," a book of recipes compiled for the Neiman-Marcus store in Dallas.

"Most canapes," quoted Mrs. Semmler, "can be classified into two categories: those that merely get you in the mood for dinner, and those that nearly get you out of it."

After discussing different types of food in some detail, she hurriedly gave some tips on reducing. "There is only one machine," she admitted, "that is of any value in reducing, and that is a scale."

When she finished her talk, she passed out cookies that had been made from the recipes in the Text.

At the end of the program, refreshments were served by the hostess. A social hour followed.

MRS. HERCHER PRESENTS PROGRAM AT DILLARD WSCS
