Six selected

The night following the general meeting on Jan. 19, Chairman Paetz met with six selected from the full committee to summarize the points for study as enumerated by County Supt. The first committee of seven included besides the chairman, Mrs. Austin Wilson, vice-chairman; William Markham, secretary; Ross Bowles, Mrs. B. O. Bordeaux, Robert Lilly, and Archie Lousignat.

elementary supervisor, made a further survey of the White building at the close of the meeting Wednesday. He then stated that to get approval for its use for another year, the district would have to revise and re-light all rooms; paint the interior in conformity to state standards; stagger recess periods of classes in use of lavatories and water fountains; hold class loads to state minimum; indicate basis upon which building was still being kept in use. Shold stressed the need of a full-time elementary principal for all elementary school having eight, or more, teachers. The need is not based upon the number of pupils in attendance as erroneously stated in a previous report.

Cease-Fire Debate Starts In U.N. Group

seek an end to fighting in Formosa Strait.

Soblev touched off the first controversy at the opening of the session by seeking to bar Nationalist China from the council table. Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. countered with a demand that the council refuse to act on the Soviet proposal and was upheld.

The Western powers thus won the first round test.

The United States called the Soviet demand a propaganda move designed to confuse and divert serious efforts to halt the fighting, which included new Communist firebombing of the Tachens Sunday. More than four years ago the Security Council defeated an almost identical resolution.

Peiping radio called cease-fire moves here "a war of aggression against China under the United Nations flag" and attacked — as did the Soviet resolution — utterances of U. S. political leaders defending the joint Congress resolution which gives President Eisenhower wide powers for the defense of Formosa.

President Eisenhower twice called for U.N. steps for a cease-fire last week but said on signing the resolution that the United States would defend any area from an attack threatening the United States and world security.

Adm. Felix B. Stump, U.S. Pacific Fleet commander, said in Taipei "any time American forces are attacked anywhere they will defend themselves," as he awaited orders to give the Tachens evacuation the protective umbrella promised by the United States.

Eisenhower Asks U.S. Aid In Medical Costs

ing of private health insurance plans, the President said the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has been working with specialists from the insurance industry, experts from the health professions, and with many other interested citizens in an effort to perfect a sound reinsurance program.

"I urge the Congress to launch the reinsurance service this year by authorizing a reasonable capital fund."

While he gave no figure, the President's budget includes an item of 100 million dollars to launch this program. Secretary of Welfare Hobby will give Congress more details later.

The Republican-run 83rd Congress last year shelled a similar program advocated by the President. It called for an underwriting fund of 25 million dollars.

Would Match Other Funds

Eisenhower also:

1. Called for provision of medical care for persons in the United States who now are receiving public assistance under state programs aided by federal grants. The President said there are nearly five million such persons, and that present arrangements for their medical care "are far from adequate." He recommended separate federal matching of state and local expenditures for the medical care of public assistance recipients.
2. In asking authorization for federal insurance of mortgage loans for the construction of health facilities, said many communities now lack such facilities and present financing methods "are not always satisfactory in meeting this problem."
3. Asked authorization of programs to provide more nursing care and establishment of public health traineeships in all specialty fields, including mental health.
4. Called for general improvement of the public health programs including those providing services for mothers, crippled children and children requiring special health services.
5. Proposed additional care and facilities for the mental ill.
6. Asked for an increase in the U. S. contribution to the world health organization. The President said that "for half of mankind, disease and disability are a normal condition of life," and added that "this incalculable burden not only causes poverty and distress, but impedes economic development and provides a fertile field for the spread of communism."

Eisenhower gave no details of his health reinsurance program, but it presumably is similar to the one he advocated last year.

"Under it, Congress would put up a capital fund, but it would involve an outright expenditure of federal cash. The money would be used to encourage private companies to expand their programs."

Stockholders Sue To Halt Associated Plywood Sale

SEATTLE (AP) — A group of stockholders of Associated Plywood Mills Inc., Eugene, filed suit in superior court here Friday in a move to halt sale of the company to United States Plywood Corp.

In the superior court action here, Judge Ward W. Roney issued a temporary restraining order prohibiting company officials from transferring any assets of Associated Plywood to United States Plywood pending a hearing before Superior Judge James W. Hodson Feb. 15.

The stockholders contended in their complaint that the sale price to United States Plywood would be $15,943,000 whereas they said the true value of the company is about 37 million.

Famous Trichologist Tells Truth About Saving And Improving Hair

This new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Roseburg, Oregon, Wednesday Only, Feb. 2, 1955.

These private individual demonstrations will be held at the Umpqua Hotel on Wednesday Only, Feb. 2, 2 P.M. 'Till 9 P.M.

OKLAHOMA CITY — Jan. 30 In an interview here today Dr. Russell Collins, internationally famous trichologist and director of the Collins Hair and Scalp Experts, Inc., said "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so-called cure-all could correct all the disorders," he explained.

GUARANTEED

"The Collins firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offers a guarantee," Collins said.

Once a person avails themselves to the Collins treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress in the Very First 30 days your money will be returned."

HOPELESS CASES DISCOVERED

First the Collins specialists are quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely, shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin, or colorless, the Collins firm can perform wonders.

Everyone is given a complete, private examination to determine the condition of his scalp, and cause for his hair trouble.

FREE EXAMINATIONS

This examination is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. There is no charge for this examination and no appointment is necessary. After the examination he is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost.

After starting treatment, he makes regular reports to the Collins firm in Oklahoma City, and a trichologist will return to check his progress periodically.

To spread the opportunity of normal, healthy hair to the thousands who are desperately looking for help, the Collins firm is sending specialists to various cities throughout the United States to conduct examinations and start home treatment.

NO CURE-ALL

"We have no cure-all for slick, shiny baldness," Collins emphasizes. "If there is fuzz, the root is still capable of creating hair and we can perform what seems to me a miracle."

There is one thing Collins wants to be certain every man and woman knows. If a recession appears at the temples or a spot begins to show up on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

HAIR FOR LIFETIME

"If clients follow our directions during treatment, and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives," Collins said. "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment, it depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules."

HOW'S YOUR HAIR?

If it worries you call Trichologist M. C. Stanley at the Umpqua Hotel in Roseburg, Ore. on Wednesday Only, Feb. 2, 2 P.M. 'Till 9 P.M. The public is invited. You do not need an appointment. The examinations are private and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.
