Spokane Radio Recognizes Feat In Polio Drive

By ROSA HEINBACH
Mrs. Gerald Burton of Dillard received news from her daughter Mrs. Vester Hanslee, of Spokane, Wash., that a Spokane radio station commented on the outstanding achievement in the polio drive contest recently conducted between the Roseburg High School and Douglas High School.

Trip Ends
Mrs. Earl Kendall returned to her home in South Dillard Thursday after a two-months visit with relatives in Arkansas. Making the trip both ways by bus, Mrs. Kendall first visited her daughter, Little Rock, in Morrilton, Ark., where she lived until the family moved to Dillard six years ago. She visited her mother, Mrs. Adam Jackson, and her sister, Mrs. Helen Morgan, and families. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall lives at the Doughty Brothers mill in South Dillard where the former is employed.

The Commercial Lumber Sales Co. of Dillard have purchased the Doughty Bros. A. and T. Mill, on Brockway road. They took over operations Feb. 1.
Mrs. E. R. Barnes of Dillard received clippings and pictures from the Press Journal of Louisiana, Mo., that her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Raney, had recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, with five children, 22 grandchildren and three great grandchildren in attendance. Mrs. Barnes and family were unable to make the trip to Louisiana for the family reunion.

Gaylon Fish, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fish, of Kent Creek is now employed at the Powell & Son Logging Co. He had recently been working with the Piper Lumber Co. in Green.

Word has been received by relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Poin-dexter, formerly of Dillard, they had left their present home in Sacramento, Calif., for a trip to Brokenbow, Okla., where Mrs. Poin-dexter went for medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Howell and daughters, Leslie and Debbie, went to Bandon Saturday to spend the weekend with Hutton's uncle Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hutton, and family.
