Legion Auxiliary Has Numerous Activities

Umpqua Unit, American Legion Auxiliary members have a number of activities and projects underway since the first of the year. Under the enthusiastic leadership of the unit president, Orpha Busenback, the auxiliary started off its meeting in January with a March of Dimes Dutch auction and raised $21 for the March of Dimes. The unit mans the Ground Observation Post one day a month and has ordered 8000 poppies to be fabricated at Camp White. Money realized from the poppies will go to the veterans making them.

Jennie Midland, who recently attended the Child Welfare conference in Portland as a delegate from Umpqua Unit, turned in a most interesting report of the conference at the January meeting. A shower for the gift shop at the VA Hospital followed. $125 was realized for the shop, managed by the Legion Auxiliary representative. Feb. 2 a potluck dinner was held and a bulb and shrub project for the beautification of Camp White was held. Cookies were furnished for several ward parties held at the VA Hospital and members of the Past Presidents Parley will make 80 Easter favor cups to be placed on trays of patients at the VA Hospital who are served in the wards. Money received from the magazine drive will be used to purchase equipment to be made available to Douglas County residents. Betty Moore and daughter, Judy, presented a very interesting program. The members voted to give $125 toward a piano for the chaplaincy at the VA Hospital. The 20st members and members of 40 et 8 will also assist with the piano fund.
