

TRAVEL TALK ENJOYED AT LOOKINGGLASS PTA

A large and appreciative audience listened attentively Friday evening at the Lookingglass PTA meeting when William Evans of Roseburg gave his interesting travel covering the 22 months he spent with Mrs. Evans touring South American countries.

His collection of trophies is varied and proved most interesting to the youth as well as the adults present.

A business session was held preceding the travel talk. The group authorized the attendance of two delegates to the forthcoming state conference of PTA to be held in Portland. Announcement will be made later of the delegates to be chosen. Refreshments were served by the first grade mothers. The room count tied between the upper grades and the first grade rooms.

Program chairman, Mrs. Elton Grass, announced that arrangements were being made for a panel discussion on some phases of child guidance at the next meeting, scheduled for March 11.

FAMILY NIGHT HELD AT DILLARD CHURCH

"Family night" of the Dillard-Winston Methodist Church Sunday evening was an enjoyable affair and well attended by local families. The potluck supper was served at 6:30 to forty-eight members of the community. Following the dinner hour, a devotional review of the missionary study of India and Pakistan was led by Mrs. Harold Emert and the Rev. R. A. Feenstra. The "birthdays of the month" which were honored included Lawrence Hercher and Christine Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Burgess. A business meeting of the church board was held at the close of the evening. Ronald Burgess reported on the recent sub-district meeting he attended in Roseburg on churchmanship, led by the Rev. Louis Bove, pastor of the Methodist Church from Sutherlin. Burgess' report will help with the evangelistic effort starting at the Dillard Methodist Church, beginning with Lent, until Easter. The Rev. Paul Peterson of Wesley Church in Eugene will be guest pastor at this period of intensive evangelism.

The Lookingglass Home Extension Unit met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William Cooper. "Simple Home Repairs" was the topic for the all-day meeting with Mrs. Leonard Cooper and Mrs. William Cooper, leaders.

The group voted to contribute ten dollars to the scholarship fund and to hold a bake sale at the next regular meeting scheduled March 15 at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Williams. Mrs. Robert Patterson and Mrs. Williams will be leaders of the "Home Ready Mix" project.

A potluck lunch was enjoyed at noon by the members and three guests; Mrs. Roy Buell, Mrs. Henry Landers and Mrs. C. N. Stubbs.

The Community service committee on the herd law reported. The railroad signal committee reported it was to meet with the railroad representatives Tuesday.

The refreshment committee, Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Les Crane, served refreshments. Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Fair Oaks Grange and Mr. Zalator of Portland, who represented the Oregon Grange Wholesale Co.

EAGER BLUEBIRDS HAVE BUSY MONTH

January was a busy month for the Eager Bluebirds under the leadership of Mrs. Gordon Todd. In addition to scrapbook work and games, the girls made bean bags and a potholder hanger for a Valentine for their mothers. This was made out of plywood, heart-shaped, painted red and completed with ribbon and hook for hanging. The girls all attended a skating party with the proceeds from their candy sale.

Mrs. Olive Blondell announced the home talent show Mar. 4 by the Wilbur Community Club at Wilbur. Mrs. McKay asked cooperation of the community in the forthcoming rummage sale to be given by the Band Boosters Association at the Elks temple in Roseburg Feb. 26. Any Wilbur or Winchester band parent will accept rummage, old records, etc. to be sold.

Reports were made by Ben Smith and Jim Hennebeck on the standardization of the two schools. Except for undersized classrooms and a few minor details, both schools are standard.

Plans for the March 10 meeting were given by Mrs. Burton Holt, program chairman. The parents are to have complete charge of the meeting. Mrs. M. D. McKay, Mrs. Welby Leep and Mrs. Leslie Moorhouse were appointed to prepare the program.

Mrs. Barnes, first grade teacher at Winchester, announced a meeting soon for first grade mothers. They will make and stuff animals for a school room zoo.

The president, Mrs. Fred Broszio, read a paper on Founder's Day and an offering was taken. Past presidents of the organization were acknowledged.

Mr. Smiths fourth grade room, and Mrs. Fosters second grade room tied for the room count.

An interesting panel, mediated by Ben Smith, was held. The problem discussed was report cards. Ray Austin, first panel member, agreed in part with the present card system, commenting that former cards produced competition between children, while those used now reported the child's own abilities.

Bob Borland thought the present cards give a feeble report, needing support from the "purple puzzle" enclosed with them. This was his own description of the mimeographed attitude sheets sent out with the report cards. Jim Hennebeck, head teacher of Wilbur, stated that no report card could do the work of a parent-teacher conference.

In summary, Earl Ladd, suburban supervisor of District No. 4, agreed with Hennebeck's statement, and added that a report card is only an expression of how the individual teacher feels toward the child. This feeling varies as the teachers' moods and the child's actions vary.

A volley of questions from the audience brought interesting answers.

The room mothers of Mrs. Fosters room served refreshments at a table prettily decorated in the Valentine motif.

An executive meeting of the organization is scheduled for Wed., Mar. 2, at the Winchester School.
