Temperance Program Set At Lookingglass

By HAZEL S. MARSH

A temperance program is being arranged for the evening of March 6 at the Lookingglass Church, Mrs. Albert Fray, president of the Roseburg Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will preside at the meeting.

Two temperance speech contests will be held by 3rd and 4th grade pupils, vying for silver and bronze medals, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Southwick. One of the late temperance colored motion pictures will be shown and special music provided.

Here For Weekend
Cathy Greer, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Greer, came home for the weekend with her parents. The little girl is attending school in Salem.

Miss Mary Jean Buell, who is a student at Portland State College, spent the weekend with the home folk Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buell, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr have assumed management of the Lookingglass store, taking over from Cliff Grasser who is giving full time to his logging operations.

Attended Session
Mrs. Fred Southwick and Mrs. Arthur Marsh, accompanied by Mrs. W. J. Adair of Roseburg, drove to Portland last Monday to attend the mid-year executive session of the State WCTU held on Tuesday and Wednesday at Campbell Court Hotel. Enroute the group visited the Children's Farm Home in Corvallis overnight. They were also in attendance at the United Fund annual banquet held in the grand ballroom of the Multnomah Hotel in Portland on Tuesday evening.

Bobby Schulze is home from Oregon State College to assist his father, Fred Schulze, in their dairy project.

Local sheepmen report a very favorable lambing season at its height and the lambs in good condition. The fruit growers are completing pruning operations and getting ready for the spray program, while those engaged in general farming have taken advantage of the unusually fine weather for field cultivation.
