

Roseburg Toastmistress Club Has Fine Meeting

Roseburg Toastmistress Club held its regular meeting Feb. 23, with Lois Burton presiding. Inspiration was given by Nell Cooper Doris DeGure as topic mistress, used subjects of general interest, which were handed to members in sealed envelopes. Each member was given 15 seconds after opening to make a 3 minute impromptu speech. This was practice for the annual speech contest scheduled for next regular meeting. The speech voted by members to be the best was given by Lois Burton, who was awarded the speech trophy cup by Celia Day, the previous winner. Virginia Wright was timekeeper.

Nell Morgan, as toastmistress for the evening, introduced Celia Day, who presided as moderator for an interesting round-table discussion on the Formosan situation. After a short business session the meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served. Next regular meeting of Roseburg Toastmistress Club will be held March 9, at 8:00 o'clock at 231 W. Lane. This meeting will be the annual speech contest at club level. In the contest each member gives a 7 to 10 minute prepared speech plus a 3 to 5 minute impromptu talk. Visitors will be welcome.

MRS. WILSON HOSTS ROSEBURG WCTU AT TUESDAY MEETING

The Roseburg Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elta Wilson. Mrs. Edith Ackert led the inspiring devotional service, which was followed by the business session in charge of the president, Mrs. Betty Fray. A report of the work accomplished in the soldiers and sailors department under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mabel Taylor was received and the Union voted to authorize the purchase of additional yardage for lap robe linings in compliance with the needs listed. Mrs. Taylor has supervised the completion of a number of articles needed by the Roseburg Veterans Facility as well as a number of the lap robes for use at Camp White. A vote of appreciation was accorded Mrs. Taylor for her untiring efforts in this department.

The Rev. Valerie Cleveland was program chairman for the day and gave a much appreciated talk on parliamentary usages. She was assisted by Mrs. R. D. Knigge who reviewed the alcohol information leaflet entitled "The Effects of Moderate Drinking on Heavy Labor." Excerpts cited by Mrs. Knigge included the findings of the Max Planck Institute for work physiology detailing how minute quantities of alcohol can injure precision work and that after-effects continue many hours.

A discussion was held of ways and means to cooperate with the state organization in raising a fund to send Mrs. Betty Fray to the National School in Evanston, Ill., March 23 to 30. The local Union decided to send a contribution to the state treasurer and to contact members in this area for further donations. The school is known as the WCTU Workshop on Organization and Leadership Training with one or more delegates from each state who will promote field service department work, assume leadership of local unions and the Youth Temperance Councils and Loyalty Temperance Legions of the youth groups.

A booth at the Douglas County Fair was authorized. The organization went on record as opposing Sunday operation of the fair.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting and an announcement made of the next regular meeting March 22 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Clark, 625 Winchester St.
