Cow Creek Logger In Woods Accident

By MRS. G. B. FOX
John Strode of Cow Creek broke two toes of his left foot last week when a tree he was falling hit a log and rolled back onto his foot. Strode was working for the Umpqua Logging Co. on Canyon Creek mountain between Glendale and Azalea. Strode had to walk half a mile to his truck after the accident and then was taken to the Forest Glen Hospital in Canyonville where his foot was x-rayed and put into a cast.

Confined To Bed
Ray Rife of Quines Creek is still confined to his bed following an accident which occurred Feb. 8. Rife slipped and fell, hitting the bumper on his car, bruising the ligaments in his leg.

Mrs. J. H. Shepherd from Tacoma, Wash., spent last weekend visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bueger, and with her grandson, Richard Ried, and family in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson of Azalea have moved into the Quirke place.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bedgood and their three children are renting the John Feldmiller home up Cow Creek Canyon.

Mrs. Mary LaPrath of Glendale underwent surgery at the Josephine General Hospital in Grants Pass recently. Members of the family report that Mrs. LaPrath is making good progress.

Ed Smith of Glendale was ill with strep throat this week.

Mrs. Fred Jungwirth of Glendale entered the Myrtle Creek hospital for medical treatment last week.

Claim Made Subversive Groups Used Deception

NEW YORK (AP) — The counsel for New York State legislative problems says that three national organizations tagged by the government as subversive practiced deception in collecting and spending more than $3 million dollars in recent years.

Those named are the Civil Rights Congress, American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, and Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee.

after a drinking party at Beatty. Anderson had appealed to the jury to give him the death sentence or to free him, saying he did not want to spend the rest of his life in prison.

Herbert P. Welch, Lakeview, Anderson's attorney, said he would ask a new trial.

The mandatory life sentence will be imposed Tuesday by Judge Biggs.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has nominated Robert Tripp Ross of Jackson Heights, L.I., N.Y., to be assistant secretary of defense in charge of legislative and public affairs.

Mill Worker Hurt In Fall

By MRS. G. B. FOX
Richard Bedgood of Azalea fell 10 feet from a ladder in the Robert Dollar Mill plant last week. He was rushed by National Hospital Ambulance to the Forest Glen Hospital in Canyonville where examinations showed multiple bruises and lacerations and a possible concussion but no fracture. Bedgood was retained in the hospital for observation.

Has Injury

Larry Hill of Azalea was injured Monday afternoon when he caught the end of his right thumb between his truck bumper and chains he was fastening. Amputation of the end of his thumb was made, his family reports.

Mrs. Trudy Crandall and daughter, Nancy, and Mrs. Vivian Johnson and daughter, Barbara, drove to Roseburg Sunday to visit with Mrs. Johnson's sister. The sister, they found, was out of town, visiting in Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doyle and children visited relatives in Roseburg last Sunday.
