DILLARD WACS ENJOYS LUNCHEON

The Valentine motif was effectively carried out in the buffet luncheon at the February meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the Dillard Methodist Church Thursday afternoon.

The hostesses, Mrs. Marie Claiborne, Mrs. Selma Dozier and Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, arranged the surprise party to honor those having birthdays in February. The birth day guests were Mrs. Clara Feenstra, Mrs. Olga Fullerton, Mrs. Selma Dozier, Mrs. Myrtle McAlpine, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, Mrs. Betty Jo Brown, Mrs. Agatha Cherrick, Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Neva Conrad and Mrs. Arthur Marsh. Following the salad-luncheon the beautifully decorated birthday cakes, made by Mrs. Ronald Burgess, were presented with a lovely "birthday prayer," read by Mrs. Vivian Laurence.

At the brief business meeting an announcement was made that the Mary Circle of the Woman's Society would contribute $150.00 for the new church building fund, and will share in the task of "mothering" the boys and girls of two cottages at the Children's Farm Home in Corvallis, with the Martha Circle. Mrs. Arthur Marsh of Lookingglass submitted names of these children and the ladies drew the name of the child they wished to send greetings to in the home. Plans were discussed for attending the sub-district meeting March 17 at Dr. In.

Mrs. Feenstra conducted the program meeting. "The Power of Missions" was the topic chosen by Mrs. Willard Laurence in her talk of the missionary work in the backward countries of the earth, as shown by David Livingston. Mrs. W. T. Johnson presented the program for the World Day of Prayer.
