

FINE FOUNDER'S DAY PROGRAM GIVEN AT RIDDLE PTA THURSDAY

The Riddle PTA Founder's Day program, arranged by Mrs. Alfred Loy, Founder's Day chairman, was presented in the Riddle High School auditorium Thursday evening. E. E. Daniels gave a brief talk on the Riddle Boy Scout organization and four boys in Scout uniforms led the audience in the flag salute.

Objectives of the PTA were repeated in unison by the audience, and the national history of the PTA was reviewed by Mrs. Edmond LaForte. Mrs. Loy gave the state history; and Mrs. Lewis Wooley, a charter member, introduced the past presidents of the local organization. Mrs. Bob Bordeaux served as first president eight years ago. She was followed by Mrs. B. H. Mann, Mrs. Herman Bauer, Mrs. Charles Strode, Mrs. Larry Strode, Mrs. L. A. F. Minnaugh, Conrad Rhoads, and presently serving, Mrs. Heinrich Schmidt. Attractive red corsages were pinned upon each president as introduced.

Vernon L. Lake gave a very interesting talk on the high school international relations group he has organized in the school, and the influence these groups are exerting in forming public opinion which, in turn, helps direct our foreign policy.

Plans for the coming PTA dance in March were revealed by Mrs. Elmer Mitchell, chairman of ways and means.

The following nominating committee was elected from the audience: Mrs. Donald Brown, Mrs. Audrey Spicer and Mrs. Robert Lilly.

Room count was taken by superintendent Kenneth Stuart with high score going to Mrs. Evelyn Lair's room.

Since no one in the Riddle Senior class wished to follow the teaching profession, it was decided that all proceeds above those necessary for the current budget will be applied on the visual projector for the Riddle schools.

The meeting was adjourned to enjoy the attractive anniversary cake with candles lighted by four second grade girls.

DILLARD PTA HAS FOUNDER'S DAY CELEBRATION MEET

The Golden Jubilee Anniversary of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers was celebrated recently at the Dillard Elementary School by an interesting program and refreshments. The occasion was remembered as the seventh anniversary of the organizing of the Dillard PTA.

Mrs. Letha Ryder, chairman of the Founders Day program, introduced the past presidents: Mrs. Margaret McCord, Mrs. Jo Lesh, Mrs. Dora Moore, and each was presented a corsage. The mothers presented a two-act play entitled, "What Price Knowledge?" with the following characters taking part: Mrs. Betty Gubser, Mrs. Ruby Peterson, Mrs. Daisy Fox, Mrs. Mildred Clauson, Mrs. Mary Bird, Mrs. Eleanor Shigley and Mrs. Letha Ryder. Music between acts was played by Glenda Lee Ryder.

The brief business meeting was opened with invocation by Mrs. Daisy Fox. Mrs. Merle Doering's fifth grade room won the room count. The nominating committee appointed included Mrs. Crystal Wilson, Mrs. Viola Bates and Mrs. Daisy Fox.

March 25 was the date set for the annual spring penny supper to be given at the school cafeteria for the benefit of the budget. The health chairman requested bed-readers for the cots in the sick room.

Donald Martin of Roseburg gave an informative talk on obscene literature found on newsstands. It was voted to send a letter to Senator John McCreffield stating that the Dillard PTA wished to go on record as being in favor of Bill No. 172-173, which pertains to questionable literature.

Immediately following the outstanding program the third grade mothers served refreshments at the beautifully appointed table, which carried out the school colors, green and yellow. The decorated Founder's Day cake was served by Mrs. Ryder, with past presidents, Mrs. McCord and Mrs. Lesh, at the silver service.

A unique idea was carried out to help guests get acquainted when they matched numbers for refreshment partners.
