

THE LARGEST AFFAIR of the coming week will be the annual fashion show, dessert-supper and card party to be sponsored by Associated Volunteers Tuesday, March 8, in the recreation hall of the VA Hospital at 7:30 p.m. The Style Shop will furnish the fashions and Mrs. Ella Gray will act as commentator. The card play will follow the fashion show. Prizes will be awarded winners in contract bridge, pinocle and canasta. A door prize will also be given. Both men and women are most cordially invited to enjoy this annual affair. Proceeds will go toward sponsoring the weekly Tuesday night card parties at the hospital. Tickets for the party are now on sale.

MRS. RITCHIE IS HONORED AT DINNER

Mrs. Hugh Ritchie was honored Tuesday at a birthday dinner given for her by Mrs. Clifford McKay at the McKay residence on Del Rio Drive.

The table was decorated in a spring motif with pussy willows and yellow daffodils. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edmonds and son, Walter; Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKay and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay.

The evening was spent in visiting.

FORMER GLENDALE TEACHER MARRIES

Miss Kimiko Hazel Kusachi, former Glendale High School teacher, was married Feb. 15 in Portland to Harold Calhoun. The couple will reside in Portland, and Mrs. Calhoun will continue to teach at Hood River where she is now employed. Calhoun was recently released from the armed services.

Shirley Joan Saar Is Now Mrs. Arthur Huusko

On Saturday afternoon, Feb. 2, at 4 p.m., Shirley Joan Saar, daughter of C. M. Saar of Roseburg, and Mrs. John Seaburg of Reedsport, became the bride of Arthur Huusko of Reedsport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huusko of Biwabik, Minn.

The couple were quietly married at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Saar. The Rev. Newell Morgan of the First Christian Church conducted the single ring ceremony before a few close friends and relatives.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length white embroidered Swiss organdy dress. Her short veil hung from a net and pearl tiara. She carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid. Miss Janice Saar sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. Her gown was light blue net over taffeta and she wore a yellow carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. The serving table, covered by a handmade cloth, was centered with an attractive bouquet of yellow daffodils and acacia, flanked by tall yellow tapers. Mrs. Keith Phillips poured punch, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. A. F. Saar, of Placerville, Calif., served coffee. The bride chose a grey silk faille suit with pink accessories and an orchid corsage to wear on her return to Reedsport, where the bridegroom is employed and where they will reside.
