Ellsworth Takes Position On Interstate Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Ellsworth (R-Ore) Saturday accepted appointment as a member of the Congressional Interstate Advisory Committee.

The group supervises the program, set up by the American Political Science Assn., to provide on-the-scene training for young teachers of political science and journalism. The program is designed to give first-hand knowledge to teachers by placing them on the staffs of members of Congress.
Ellsworth, one of two House members on the committee, said he "wholeheartedly endorsed" such a program which is in line with his efforts to employ Oregon youths in his own office.

The congressman now has one Oregon youth—Sidney Chandler of Florence—working in his office while attending the Georgetown University Law School.

NO CHANGE PLANNED

PARIS (AP) — Cambodia has assured France the abdication of King Norodom Sihanouk and the accession of his father, Suramarit, will bring no change in the relations between France and that tiny kingdom, one of the three Associated States of Indochina.

The assurances were given to President Rene Coty by Cambodia's high commissioner in Paris Gen. Tieu Loung.
