

Canyonville Seniors Take Sneak Jaunt

By VIRGINIA PRCTOR
Canyonville High School senior class, 16 in all, accompanied by their advisor, Charles Dowd, took their annual senior sneak in the form of a field trip to San Francisco last week.

Chaperoned by both Mr. and Mrs. Dowd and travelling caravan style, the group left Thursday afternoon and returned Sunday.

The class had been planning this venture since they were in the seventh grade and all money earned in that time had gone into their San Francisco trip fund.

The group planned to see all points of interest, both educational and entertaining in the San Francisco area; a tour charted carefully by Dowd.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Dowd, the group included Kathy Giles, Geraldine Bryson, Virginia Huffman, Donna Hagen, Ralph Huffman, Charles Falconer, Ed Byrd, Hal Callantine, Larry Halstead, Norman Jones, Geraldine Stoneking and Less Yeager.

The Canyonville student body will sponsor a dance in the school gym Friday for high school students and their friends, to raise more money to help pay for the recently purchased high fidelity record player.

Neighbors of the Milton Coopers owners of Cooper's Gardens east of Canyonville, pitched in and helped them with the "old time" spirit Thursday afternoon.

Beginning with a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Marjorie Fenn, a group of 11 spent the afternoon at the Cooper home folding the spring issue of "growing Pains," spring catalog of Cooper's Gardens.

Mrs. Cooper, the former May Fenn, was raised near Canyonville and returned last fall after several year's absence and with her husband organized the nursery, calling it Cooper's Gardens. They had been in the same business in their former location at Coquille and had published two previous issues of their catalog in that location.

Neighbors who helped fold the paper were Miss Bess Clough, Miss Emma DeWald, Miss Jennie DeWald, Mrs. Howard Green, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weaver and Huron Clough, Mrs. Fenn and Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.

THANKS FOR CAKE

BAKER — Mrs. Eisenhower has sent a warm letter of thanks to Mrs. Edna Nave, Richland, Ore., for the cake Mrs. Nave baked for her and the President.

Mrs. Nave sent the cake, frosted with a replica of the capitol and with likenesses of the President and Mrs. Eisenhower, as a Valentine gift.

Mrs. Nave says she is going to frame Mrs. Eisenhower's letter and hang it on the wall.

OUTSTANDING 4-H livestock club members are Barbara and Boyd Knechtel, Wilbur. Both belong to the Calapooia Rustlers. Barbara was judged "best sheep showman" at the 1954 Douglas County Fair. Boyd received the special Kiwanis Club award (a registered ewe) for having the outstanding sheep project in the county last year. Their father, Kenneth E. Knechtel, is a 4-H club leader. As a boy, he was a 4-H club member in Pawnee County, Kansas. Mrs. Knechtel helps keep the 4-Hers in her family busy. National 4-H club week is being observed March 5-13. (Paul Jenkins photo)
