DADS PRESENT FINE PROGRAM AT BENSON

Mrs. Warren Robinson was elected to the office of president Monday night at the regular meeting of the Benson PTA with Mrs. Robert Green, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Huestis, secretary; Mrs. C. H. Pearson, treasurer; and Mrs. Nick Lehrbach, historian.

Mrs. Alfred Meyer, president, opened the meeting and called attention to the fact that next week was the Camp Fire birthday week and introduced the Blue Bird and Camp Fire leaders of Benson School. Mrs. Kanalewski's fourth grade room won the planter for the room count. After a brief business session the meeting was turned over to the Dads. Ira Byrd, master of ceremonies, introduced Nick Lehrbach, who in a pink Easter bonnet thrilled the group with the singing of "Doggie in the Window," complete with gestures, in a high soprano voice, with the aid of a record in the wings. Next was Paul Cacy, darling of the 90's, dressed in a black and white bathing suit, doing a song and tap number. The grand climax was the presentation of "The Charleston Tragedy" with the cast as follows: Harry Hill, Ira Byrd, Robert Green, Gerry Hennebeck, John Bognar and Bill Bertsch.

The evening was a complete success with the dads serving refreshments and doing dishes.
