

Green Community People Travel, Visit, Entertain

By MARY WEIKUM

Mrs. Warren Engdahl and small daughter, Kristine, spent the past week in Seattle visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mauritz Johnson and other relatives. On Friday they went to Olympia, where they were joined by Warren Engdahl and daughters, Susan and Mary Lou at the home of Engdahl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Engdahl. Their stay was planned to coincide with a visit by Engdahl's sister, Mrs. G. J. Kempton and family of Anchorage, Alaska, who were enroute home from a two month vacation spent in Tucson, Ariz. The Engdahls arrived home Sunday.

Attend Concert

Among those from Green who attended the community concert in Roseburg were Mrs. Warren Engdahl, Susan and Mary Lou Engdahl, Wanda Whitely, Mrs. Carl Weikum and Janet, Mrs. Clyde Fullerton and D'Anne, and Mrs. Mathewman.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Funk and three children were called to Portland this week due to the death of Funk's father, Casper Funk of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Beebe of Cottage Grove were in Green over the weekend visiting their daughter, Mrs. Travis Richardson and her family.

Californians Here

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Guthrie and family of Newhall, Calif., have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Terrell of Stella Street. Guthrie has found employment, and the family hopes to locate in Green permanently.

Mrs. Clara Morris of Sweet Home is spending several days in Green visiting her daughter, Mrs. Amos Miner and family.

Mrs. Eric Johnson has returned to her home in Green after spending a week in Eugene at the home of her son, Victor Berkey, taking care of his two children while Mrs. Berkey was in the hospital with the new baby, Sheryl Kay, who was born on Feb. 28.

Mrs. Elwin White has returned to her home in Glengary after spending 10 days in Santa Monica in San Francisco, where she visited friends and relatives.

Pvt. David Parkhurst, son of Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst of Happy Valley, has been home on furlough from Fort Ord, Calif. Parkhurst will report for further duty in Arkansas.

Roger White, who has been serving in the U. S. Navy for two years, has received his discharge, and is now at home in Green. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin White of Glengary.

Diesel Fuel Injection Firm Opened In Roseburg

Two men, one from Roseburg, the other from Portland opened the doors of a new business firm this week. They are Boyd Gregory and C. J. Ruhlén, co-owners of the Southern Oregon Diesel Injection and Electrical Co.

Gregory, from Roseburg, has been with the local Howard-Cooper Corp. for six years and is a Navy veteran. He is married and has two children. Ruhlén, who will handle the electrical phase of the work moved to Winchester from Portland with his family earlier this month.

The firm is located on the Garden Valley Road, behind the new Stearns Hardware and Implement Co. Gregory states they will service all types of Diesel fuel injection equipment as well as other heavy equipment magneto, starters and generators.

Illness Plagues Sutherlinites

By MRS. BRITTAIN SLACK

Vernie Leisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Leisinger, who was confined to a Roseburg hospital with pneumonia for several days was brought home last Sunday and was well enough to return to school a week later.

Larry Vanderberg, who recently underwent emergency surgery for appendicitis at a Roseburg hospital is reported as getting along well.

Mrs. Maurice Vogelwohl, who underwent major surgery at Mercy Hospital at Roseburg, has improved enough that she was brought home this week.

Mrs. Wesley Thompson, Mrs. Harry Garber and Mrs. Frank McCord shopped and transacted business in Eugene Friday.

Mrs. Brittain Slack, who has been confined to her home the past week with the flu, is able to be out again.

Stephen Thompson was ill at his home on Terrace Lane last week and was unable to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Atterbury and family of Roseburg were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Atterbury at their home on East Sixth Avenue.

Mr. Henry Williams of West Sutherlin was taken to Douglas Community Hospital in Roseburg Sunday with pneumonia.

Mrs. Mildred Lund of Los Angeles and her mother, Mrs. Katie Graham arrived in Sutherlin Saturday. Mrs. Lund will visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Rowntree and her mother and friends for a few weeks before returning to her home in California.

Oakland Seniors Consider Careers

By EDITH DUNN

Army and Air Force recruiters will visit Oakland High School to discuss service careers with seniors on Monday. Navy and Marine recruiters will visit the high school on Wednesday at 10 a.m.

Vacation Noted

Oakland Schools will have spring vacation March 15 through Monday, March 21. The teachers will attend an Oregon Education Assn. meeting during the vacation.

"The Lamb and the Sacrifice" will be the subject of Dr. Homer M. Noble's Sunday theme at the Oakland Presbyterian Community Church for the third Sunday in Lent. The sermon will be heard during the 11 a.m. worship hour.

A moving picture, "The Prince of Peace," will be shown at the Jewel Theater March 16 and 17, under the sponsorship of the Women's Assn. of the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church. The proceeds from the showing will benefit the building fund. Only tickets sold by members of the association will receive credit toward the church fund.

The Women's Association of the church, working under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Lee and Mrs. Ruth Bunch, presented the church with two new flower baskets for the altar. Recognition was made of the presentation during last Sunday's service.

DISMISSED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission has granted the request of W. Gordon Allen and John Truman that their application for a new 1290 kilocycle, daytime station at Portland, Ore., be dismissed.

Southern Baptists Conduct Services In Glendale Area

By MRS. G. B. FOX

Evangelistic services are being held at the Glendale Southern Baptist Church every evening through March 20. Evangelist Lester P. Stone of Kennewick, Wash., is conducting the services and everyone is invited to attend.

Visit Kin
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jantzer and two children, Elaine and Stevie, spent last weekend in Arcata, Calif., visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jantzer and family and his brother, Stanley Jantzer, and family.

Mrs. Hattie Ellis of Glendale entered the Grants Pass Hospital

March 4, expecting to undergo surgery. However, it developed that she was suffering from pneumonia, and the surgery is being put off till a later time.

Mrs. W. S. Dowdy and boys, Jerry and Ronnie, accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Welch, to Klamath, Calif., where they visited over the weekend with Mrs. Dowdy's son, A. J. Dowdy.

Earn Money
The Glendale Letterman's Club is selling plastic covered telephone book covers to earn money toward a whirlpool bath for treatment of sore muscles which they would like to have installed in the physical education department.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Polleski of Glendale are the parents of a 7½ pound baby girl, Jennifer, born March 2.
