DR. BABBITT IS GUEST SPEAKER AT DOUGLAS PTA

Dr. C. H. Babbitt of Roseburg was guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Douglas High School PTA Wednesday evening. Dr. Babbitt showed a film on rheumatic fever accompanied by a much appreciated talk on symptoms of the fever and of heart trouble in children. He passed out booklets relative to the diseases.

The business session of the organization was conducted by the president, Mrs. Margaret McCord. The attention of the group was called to the request for individual letters to be written to state senators urging their support of S.B. 172 and 173. These bills will be a step toward the removal of undesirable and obscene literature now available to our children.
A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Dobbins, Mrs. Golgert, Mrs. Erbe, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Ryder was named.
Paul Dodd presented the Junior High Band in several numbers at the close of the business session.

FAIR OAKS CLUB MAKES EASTER CLOTHES

Fair Oaks Industrial Club met Thursday at a noon potluck dinner with Mrs. Dora Hamilton and Mrs. Ethel Byles as hostesses. Beautiful spring flowers made a pretty centerpiece for the long table where twenty three members sat down to enjoy a delicious dinner.

Following the dinner a business meeting was called to order by the president, and the chairman of the work committee passed out material to be made into dresses or skirts for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis for Easter. The members were reminded that the parcel post sale will be held at the next club meeting Thursday, April 7, and that each member is to bring a guest.

During the work hour the members sewed on a quilt.

DORCAS SOCIETY MEETS AT GLENDALE
The Dorcas Society of the Glendale Seventh Day Adventist Church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ann Campbell. After a devotional service members quilted and cut out quilt blocks. A covered dish dinner was served. After dinner, ladies continued to work on quilts, as others went out to gather up used clothing and quilt scraps which are to be used for mission boxes or for local needy.

BAPTIST CHURCH GROUPS HAVE RECENT MEETINGS

The Marjorie Gipson Circle for business and professional women of the First Baptist Church met recently with Esther Gilliland in the Kohlhaugen Apts. Mrs. Althea Caraway had charge of the devotional, and Miss Dorothy Curtis was guest speaker for the evening. She also showed pictures of the Holy Land and Europe. Mrs. Gilliland, assisted by Mrs. Edith Edwards, served lovely refreshments.

The Loyalty Circle of the First Baptist Church met at 10:00 a.m. Thursday in the church for a time of work and fellowship. Mrs. Ruth Haas, circle leader, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Corinne Madison led the devotion. Mrs. Haas read a missionary letter. A quilt was tied and receiving blankets were made. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ruth Smith on the Lookingglass Road.

The third annual missionary dinner of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church was held Friday night in the social hall of the church with Mrs. Villette West, president of the Woman's Society, in charge. The theme was "Christ Around the World." Special music was rendered by Mrs. Dale Lindsey with Mrs. Raymond Schaefer at the piano. Miss Lena Zender of Cottage Grove gave the devotion. Mrs. Mae Martin from Cottage Grove was guest speaker for the evening. She conducted a missionary tour illustrated by living pictures from the members of the various circles of the local society.

BOX SOCIAL HELD BY NEBO GROVE

Members and friends of Nebo Grove of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle participated in a box social, at the Winston Community Hall Saturday night.

Prizes for the most attractive boxes were awarded to Mrs. Florence Houck and Mrs. Phoebe McGuire. After the dinner hour a program was enjoyed, which included a humorous reading by Mrs. Alberta Hughes. Dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the delightful evening with music furnished by Ira Linson, Homer Pierce, Roger Hall and Everett Hall. The next regular business meeting of Nebo Grove will be held Tuesday, March 15, 8:00 p.m. Members are requested to attend this important meeting.

MELROSE SOCIETY MEETS TUESDAY

The Missionary Society of the Melrose Community Church met at the church.
The business meeting was followed by a potluck luncheon at noon. The hostesses were Mrs. Donna Kaiser, Mrs. Esther Nicklaus and Mrs. Lucille Seely.

A very interesting program was enjoyed in the afternoon, after which the group mended and packed clothes to be sent to the missionary fields.
Twenty three ladies were present.

AZALEA GRANGE PLANS PARTY

The Azalea Grange met Friday evening at the grange hall. The program, directed by Mrs. Mary Mullarkey, included Killarney Lakes, set to music; Bill and Larry Mullarkey sang a duet.
Albert Karcher of Sutherland, pomona master, and his wife, were present, as were Mrs. Esther Mary of Roseburg, master of South Deer Creek Grange. Delicious refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Don Brady and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anderson. The next meeting, Friday, March 18, will be a hard time party.
