

POCKET SPLITS

By Glen Wellman

With the 18th City Tournament at just about the half century mark, we can draw some conclusions. It appears that the lads are hitting hard and heavy, and it's going to take a 600 average to get in the money. This opinion is borne out by the fact that the lowest team in the money was short only 13 pins of a 900 average, with Moose 1037 in 18th place on a 2987 count. Roseburg Book Store sweated out from Wednesday their fancy score of 3157, and saw it hold up for the hardware, a 624 plus average.

ANOTHER HERD of Moooses (Moose Lodge No. 1) took over the first night with a neat 3098, placed. All other high early scores faded into the low moneys, or completely out of the picture.

High team game, both scratch and handicap went to Myrtle Creek Shell with 964-1101. The Bookkeepers had high scratch series, a stout 2770, good enough to place in even the ABC.

As usual, some of the high average teams that figured to stick in the money column saw their hopes dim when the Classic Juniors came into the picture Friday night. Phillips Office Supply leaped into third place, and Moose 1037 sneaked in under the wire with their above noted 2987. The only other change Friday night was Umpqua Dairy hopping into 5th spot, with a 3040 set.

NOW A WORD for the ladies. Lord bless 'em! It's nip and tuck in their pennant race, with three teams virtually tied for first. Myrtle Creek and Drive-In Cleaners are just half a game ahead of the Young Ins. Co. Nita Nichols tried to keep her team in, and came thru with a prodigious 203-189-196-388 series, but saw the team tie one game, to drop down by that half point.

Del Mix, Ellen Jones and Frances Knudtson all had over 500 sets, with 538, 533 and 523 respectively. Real kegging for little girls. They also got close to some triplicate badges, when Geneva Book hit a pair of 1355, Betty Backer 1408, Leola Gorton 1398, Peggy Ried 1228 and Sally Moreno a 178-158-178 sandwich. Helen Blitner worked hard to make a spare by picking the 6-7 railroad.

LADIES' CITY tournament starts Tuesday night, with a 100 per cent team participation. Also, 60 out of the 80 eligible members will compete in doubles and singles. That's good representation. Beats the menfolks!

Lots of people love this game of tempins, and just to prove it, we got a good story from Ann Radigan, secretary of the city league. It seems Dixie Bell had the misfortune to sprain her right wrist, with which she has held a very creditable average. Not to let the team down, nor miss out on the sport, Dixie switched to a southpaw style, and has had games as high as 149. "The show must go on!"

SOME MORE tournament notes: We have 50 teams, compared to 46 last year, 67 doubles teams, 134 singles and 123 all-events, compared with last year's 62, 126 and 113. Due to costlier entry fees, prizes will be about double, with first team drawing 60 bucks. This new wood Joel Doe set up hasn't hurt scoring any. On the first night there were 27 games 200 or better of a total of 225, just 12 per cent. High series to date was rolled opening night, when Gus Spakousky, who toils for Harris Plumbing mauls 644 napsies, and had 710 with handicap.

Thursday night, Bill Hansen, of the MAH Market team from Sutherlin hit his all-time high game and series in sanctioned play, a luscious 223-552, which added to his handicap totaled 269-690. Coca-Cola, a team of all new bowlers, slipped into the money the same night, with 2988.

FRIDAY NIGHT another personal high was beat down when Howard Brusseau aided Phillips Office Supply into the money with the tournament's high scratch games, a luscious 252, including eight straight strikes. Howard's series with handicap was 707. At this writing, it looks like Howard and Gus Spakousky have a trophy apiece almost within their grasp.

Very few doubles and singles yet, but some conscientious efforts include Kinney & Pachmayr 1177 in C doubles, Gerry and Jim Hennebeck 1241 in "A", Jones & Wilson, Myrtle Creek 1251 in "B", Gerry Hennebeck leads in all events, 1863, Al Parson 677 in "C" Singles, and Bob DeVoe 650 in "C" Singles.

Duquesne Captures NIT Championship

NEW YORK — All America Dick Ricketts and Sihuge Green sparked Duquesne to its first National Invitational basketball championship but it was lanky Maurice Stokes of little St. Francis of Loreto, Pa., who carried off the major individual honors.

Duquesne won its first NIT in nine attempts with a 70-58 decision over Dayton Saturday night after finishing fourth, third and second in the last three years.

Ricketts and Green both were selected for the Associated Press all-tournament after scoring 56 points between them in the championship game. But Stokes, on the team that finished fourth after dropping a 96-91 overtime decision to Cincinnati, also was named on the all-star team and was the unanimous selection as the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

Johnny Horan of Dayton and Ed Fleming of Niagara were picked to round out the all-star team.

Maurice the Magnificent almost singlehandedly carried St. Francis into the semifinal round. He scored 43 points, rebounded excellently, handed out numerous assists and was a bulwark on the defense before the Frankies lost out to Dayton in the semifinal bracket. And he almost matched that demonstration Saturday night as he tallied 31 points in the battle for third place.

What Ricketts and Green accomplished in the title game was almost unbelievable. They scored all of Duquesne's 35 points in the first half. And it wasn't until 7½ minutes had passed in the second half that another Duquesne player broke the monopoly.

Duquesne ended up with 33 and Ricketts with 22.

Dayton contributed Jack Sallee to the all-star second team. Picked with him were St. Louis' Dick Boushka, Tom Heinsch of Holy Cross, George Young of Lafayette and Charlie Tyra of Louisville.

All-Events Record Cracked In Men's City Keg Tourney

First places were well distributed among individuals competing in the men's city bowling tournament conducted all day Sunday. One new record was set when Gus Spakousky totaled 2,024 in all-events in class A.

The only bowler to share more than one first place was Class C bowler Irv Giedd, who was first

A recheck of scoring in Friday night's Roseburg Bowling Assn. tournament action revealed a 10-pin error in the tabulation of the Moose 1037 team results, officials report.

Instead of tying for ninth place in team standings, the Moose 1037 team ended up 12th with a 2987 total. Bruton's Shoe Repair snared ninth, Harmony House 10th and Coca-Cola 11th.

It was reported previously that Moose 1037 had a 2997 total for the tournament, the same mark recorded by Bruton's Roseburg Book Store is the champion team.

along with Warren Sellars in doubles with a 1,255 score and first in all-events with 1,966.

John Burt rolled a 684 series and Howard Brusseau rolled the high individual game of the day with a 253 effort to lead that phase of scoring.

Collegiate Team AAU Contender

DENVER — North Carolina State's Wolfpack, one of the nation's top-ranked college basketball powers, faces an uphill battle in the National AAU tournament opening here Monday night.

However, the Southerners, sporting a 28-4 season record which includes a victory over NCAA runner-up LaSalle, are the first collegiate outfit in more than a decade to be rated a serious threat to such traditional AAU kingpins as Phillips 66, the Peoria, Ill., Cats and Denver's Central Bankers. The four teams are top-seeded in the 25-team field.

The Wolfpack was ineligible for the NCAA or NIT college tournaments.

Peoria will be seeking its fourth straight AAU cham-ship—a feat never accomplished in the 48-year history of the tournament.

North Carolina State, Phillips 66 and Denver drew first-round byes along with the Ada Oilers of Houston, Tex., the San Francisco Olympic Club and Milwaukee's Allen-Bradley.

Buchan Bakers of Seattle, the Pacific Northwest AAU champ, plays its first game Tuesday, meeting Dante Lavelli of Cleveland, O.

Vandal Football Practice Slated

MOSCOW, Idaho — The Idaho Vandals, with nine starters gone from last year's surprise team, hope to start 20 days of spring football practice on April 20, Coach Skip Stahley reports.

He will have 18 lettermen back to join 40 or more other candidates for the squad which opens a nine-game schedule against Washington in Seattle next fall.

"We rather surprised a few folks last year, so this year they will be looking at us with more care," Stahley said. "The squad will be inexperienced at the start and it could take us until mid-October before we get things moving as we want."

The Vandals beat Washington State 10-0 for the first time in 29 years last fall and then won their last three games. It was Stahley's first season here.

They will build its offense around Wilbur Gray, the fast full-back.

Softball Groups Asked To Contact Lewis McAllister

All organizations and firms interested in fielding softball teams in the city's three leagues this summer are asked to begin contacting as soon as possible.

All three leagues, the Industrial, Twilight and Church, are expected to start operating May 1 this season. A definite meeting time for prospective team managers will be announced later in the week, according to McAllister.

It was suggested by McAllister that if enough women were interested a four-team league might be formed among the ladies this summer. Any groups interested in this proposal are also asked to contact McAllister.

The 90th Yale - Harvard crew race, America's oldest intercollegiate athletic rivalry, will be held June 17 on the Thames River in New London, Conn.

When Syracuse University's football team travels to West Point for their game with Army, it will be the first grid game between the two institutions since 1935.

Eligibility Of Gridmen Restored By Huskies

SEATTLE — George Strugar and Bert Watson, two football linemen who have been on probation at the University of Washington, will be restored to full eligibility with the end of the winter quarter and be available for spring practice.

The office of the dean of students disclosed the decision.

The two were placed on probation last fall and dropped from the football squad after an incident which prompted the filing of morals charges against them in Superior Court. Watson was acquitted and Strugar released when a jury was unable to agree on a verdict.

Both were first string players. Strugar, a 225-pound tackle, is a sophomore; Watson, 205-pound guard, a junior.
