

Yanks Show Trademark: The Big Inning

THE YANKEES, sub, are at it again. They still carry that old trademark—the big inning.

The New Yorkers, who got some extraordinary charity from Washington pitchers, romped through an eight-run eighth inning to knock off the Senators 10-4 yesterday.

Maury McDermott, who finished only 11 of the 26 games he started for Washington last season, tried to go all the way for the first time this spring. Until he ran afoul in the eighth, he was doing a good job.

He had the Yanks nibbling through the first seven innings, setting them down on four singles. The Yanks got a pair of runs, one of which was unearned, but trailed 4-2 after seven. Then Washington's stringbean lefty walked three of the four men he faced in the eighth, giving up a single to the other, Mickey Mantle.

A youngster named Bob Ross, up from Chattanooga and also a southpaw, came on and forced in a run by hitting Bill Skowron. He pushed another home by walking Bob Cerv.

The Yanks took over in their old style. Gil McDougald cleared the bases with a triple and Billy Hunter singled before a double play was accomplished by the Nats. Joe Collins closed the sniping with his first spring home run.

The first serious injury of the exhibition season showed up when Boston shortstop Milt Bolling suffered a chipped bone in his left elbow in a second-base collision with St. Louis catcher Dick Rank. Bolling, whom Manager Pinky Higgins had installed as the Red Sox No. 1 man at short, will be out from six to eight weeks.

Owen Friend replaced Bolling and committed three errors that gave the Cardinals three unearned runs in their 5-4 victory.

Murry Dickson and rookie Jim Owens handcuffed the Milwaukee Braves on two hits for a 3-1 victory by the Phillies. It was 1-1 until the ninth when Del Enis drove in the tie-breaker with a triple and scored himself on an error.

Detroit also got good pitching. Ned Garver, George Zverink and Bob Schultz gave Cincinnati just six singles to win 5-1.

Brooklyn clobbered the Kansas City Athletics 15-4. Don Newsome looked good pitching five strong innings for the Brooks while Carl Furillo, Pee Wee Reese and Roy Campanella contributed heavily to 17-hit support. Furillo got four hits, Reese drove in four runs with two safeties and Campanella hit a pair of doubles and a single.

Pittsburgh got over a three-run humo in the ninth to beat the Chicago White Sox 7-6. Preston Ward drove in the crucial three runs with a homer.

Out West, the New York Giants evaded their spring series with the Cleveland Indians at 5-all, smacking Bob Lemon for six runs in the second and third innings for a 9-4 decision.

Seattle AAU Club Ousted By Champions In Overtime

DENVER — The co-favorites, Peoria, Ill., and Bartlesville, Okla., play two surprise collegiate teams in Thursday night's quarterfinals of the 48th annual National Amateur Athletic Union basketball tournament.

Peoria's Cats, bidding for a fourth straight AAU crown, meet senior players from the University of Colorado team that finished third last weekend in the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. finals at Kansas City.

The defending champions reached the quarterfinals with an 81-79 overtime victory over the Buchanan Bakers of Seattle. The Pacific Northwest team was leading 71-69 in the final minute of the regulation game but a wild pass gave Peoria the chance to tie and Al Kelley put in the basket to knot it. Dick Retherford canned two baskets in the opening minute of overtime to send the Cats on to victory.

Colorado players, wearing the colors of Luckett-Nix of Boulder, Colo., outclassed the Houston, Tex. Ada Oilers, 85-67. Bob Jeagerard hit 28 points and Burdette Halderson 27 to keep the Colorado team in front by at least 20 points most of the game.

The Phillips 66ers of Bartlesville, Okla., tabbed to dethrone Peoria, had no trouble disposing of the Santa Maria, Calif., Golden Dukes 100-66.

The 66ers meet the Colorado State College basketball team, playing under the name of Gregory Clothiers. The C-State team, fourth place finishers in the 4-team Rocky Mountain Conference, surprised the Milwaukee Allen-Bradley club, 70-67.

Denver's Central Bankers, one of the four top-seeded teams, were shut out by the U. S. Marine Corps champions from Quantico, Va., 75-68. The Marines fired 28 points in the last eight minutes to erase a 7-point Denver lead.

The Marines, superbly conditioned, meet the Los Angeles Kirby Shute team of veteran AAUers. The Californians advanced with a 68-50 conquest of another long-time AAU outfit, the CVE Travelers of Artesia, N. M.

North Carolina State's highly rated team barely squeezed by the Hope-Wuthnow Furniture team of Hope, Kan., 71-68.

The Carolina collegians bump into the San Francisco Olympic Club, a collection of Pacific Coast college standouts, who reached the quarterfinals by dumping the Akron, Ohio, Goodyear Wingfoots, 60-58.

For the first time since he came up to the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1938, Enos Slaughter's name is missing from the St. Louis spring roster.

Baker May Get Marciano Fight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Matchmaker Billy Brown of the International Boxing Club has hinted that Bob Baker, the veteran Pittsburgh heavyweight, may get a shot at Rocky Marciano's title. Baker has a previous engagement with Julio Mederos in Madison Square Garden Friday which must be attended to before he begins thinking seriously of a championship match.

"Baker is a real good fighter," said Brown today. "He can box, punch and now seems to be taking training seriously. I also like him because he's willing to fight anybody and I wouldn't be surprised if he gets a crack at Marciano in September."

Bobby Gleason, Nino Valdes' manager, is back in New York after ironing out details for his tiger's 15-rounder against Archie Moore in Las Vegas.

"It's all set for May 3," Gleason said. "They're guaranteeing each fighter $50,000 or the privilege of 25 per cent. Boy, they think nothing of money out there. They have a $30 top, but they'll be giving tickets away just for publicity."

"And when Valdes beats Moore I'm going to claim the world's heavyweight title."

He didn't say how.
