SUTHERLIN CLUB HAS SUCCESSFUL SILVER TEA THURSDAY

Colorful spring flowers, spring attire and a sunny day combined to make the Sutherlin Garden Club's annual Silver Tea the huge success that it was. The occasion was held at the attractive home of Mrs. Calvin Gilman near Fair Oaks Thursday. Her hostesses were Mrs. John Buchanan and Mrs. Richard Mola.

The beautifully appointed tea table, covered with a lace cloth, centered with a large oval arrangement of white snapdragons and ivy, was flanked on one side by a white Irish harp and two small dark green leprechauns, in honor of St. Patrick. The buffet decorations consisted of two tall white tapers with trailing ivy. Presiding over the tea and coffee urns were Mrs. C. J. Bielmann, president; and Mrs. O. L. Torrey, program chairman. About the spacious living room were placed a large decoration of yellow daffodils and acacia, while a low bowl of Japanese quince with a Chinese figurine graced the coffee table. A low crystal bowl of Daphne was used on top of the organ. In charge of the table decorations were Mrs. C. J. Hen, Mrs. F. B. Ostachout and Mrs. Milo Fellows. Guests were entertained throughout the tea by Irish melodies and other selections with Mrs. Cliff Watson of Sutherlin at the organ.

Fifty members and guests were served delicious refreshments, and a sum was gratefully received which will be sent to the Federated Garden Club's Home Foundation. Out of town guests included: Mrs. Arthur Boettcher of Auburn, Wash.; Mesdames L. E. Adams, O. J. Feldcamp, Celia Day, H. W. Mikkelsen, John Wyatt, Dave Evans and Bird from Roseburg. Also Mesdames L. Louise Fancher Now Mrs. F. W. Pittenger

A gown of palest blush pink satin, styled with short overbodice, long sleeves and moulded collar of candlelight lace, and bouffant skirt ending in a brush train, was worn by Miss Louise Fancher at her marriage Feb. 12 to Fred W. Pittenger of Seattle. Her elbow length veil fell from a fitted cap of blush pink satin covered with lace and styled with open crown. She carried a powder puff cascade bouquet of tiny pink and white roses and stephanotis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman E. Fancher, for many years residents of Roseburg before moving to Longview, Wash. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary L. Schwendener of Anaheim, Calif. and Howard E. Pittenger of Cottage Grove, Ore.

Vows were exchanged in a 4 p.m. ceremony in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Longview with the Rev. Elmer M. Lofstrom officiating. Candelabra tied with greenery, white stock and pink satin in bows lined the processional aisle and floor baskets of pink carnations and white stock decorated the altar.

Mrs. James B. King of Seattle, the bride's only attendant, wore a ballerina-length gown of deep pink capri taffeta with a headband of the same material. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white tulips.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fancher chose a lovely champagne frock with American Beauty velvet hat and the bridegroom's mother wore an orchid silk dress with pink hat.

Howard E. Pittenger served as best man for his son and ushering were James A. Myklebust and Richard R. Sowders.

Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Frank Clumpner at the organ.

A pink and white color note also was used at the reception, which followed in the Club Room of the Hotel Monticello. Mrs. Earl H. Fancher of Alameda, Calif., an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ronald Moore of Kelso poured. Mrs. D. T. Gallo of Oregon City, another aunt of the bride, and Mrs. James Myklebust cut the cake.

Miss Betty Reimer of Seattle presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. W. L. Loucks of Anaheim, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Mavis Miller of Seattle had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a silk broadcloth suit in navy blue with navy accessories and a small velvet hat in rose shades. Her corsage was of rose-mauve orchids.

Following a honeymoon to Vancouver B.C., and Harrison Hot Springs, the couple will reside in Burien, Wash., until August, when they will go to Manila, P.I., where the bridegroom will continue employment with Pan American Airways.
