

St. Patrick's Day set the theme for the table decoration when the Riversdale Home Economic Club met at the Grange Hall with Essie Olson and Ethel Fuller as hostesses.

The business meeting was conducted by the chairman, Ethel Welker. Pillow cases for the bazaar to be held early in November were distributed.

The Home Economics Club is cooperating in making straw ticks for the Grange juvenile camp.

Ethel Welker won the Irish game prize. Other games were enjoyed by all.

The next meeting will be held in the Grange Hall April 8 at a no-hostess polka lunch.

Those attending were Florence Norris, Eva Marks, Neida Norris, Ethel Youngren, Lelia Spray, Elizabeth Ogle, Anna Trozelle, Bertha Bayless, Lucie Cloake, D. Essie Tipton, Ethel Welker, Hilda Walters, Addie Schneider, Millie Beckwith and the hostesses, Essie Olson and Ethel Fuller.

NORTH DOUGLAS GRANGE HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE AT RECENT CHILI SUPPER

The North Douglas Grange met Friday night with a chili supper at 8:30 at the hall. Prizes were awarded to the Johnnie Sowies, Leland Svarverud, Alvin Allen, Mildred Rohrer and the Meacham families for being the first five families to arrive.

Grange started at 8 with Master Nelson in the chair. All other officers were present except Bob Gordiner, Jean Ames and Billie Keeran. H. E. chairman Gustafson reported $12.50 was added to the dish fund through the chili supper and numbers drawn on a pair of Chinese figurines. The figurines were won by Pansy St. Clair who recently won a tablecloth and a door prize at the last meeting.

Mrs. Florence Deeds reported $23.35 cleared on the dinner the HEC women served to the principals association of Douglas County at the Grange hall Wednesday night.

A revision was made in the ledger. It was voted to include the two complete townships instead of a small area along the roads. Discussion was continued on the matter.

There was a discussion on appointing a full board chairman and since no one volunteered it was continued until a later date.

A vote of thanks was made at this end of the county was mentioned and after several ideas a motion was made and carried to organize a drill team to put on the first and second degrees. Dean Ross was appointed as captain and a practice session is set for after the next Grange meeting.

The HEC chairman suggested a social night soon and Master Nelson appointed Dorothy Meacham, Dorothy Sands and Gustafson as the committee. They decided to have a box social Saturday, April 18, with the public invited. Everyone was urged to tell their friends and neighbors about it.

A vote of thanks was extended to Sid Meacham for making the new folding table which was in use for the chili supper.

Everyone was reminded of the HE meeting Thursday, April 7, at the Grange hall. Mrs. Meacham, hostess, will furnish the meat, bread and potatoes for the potluck dinner at noon. This meeting is to be on cross farms.

Saturday was work day for the NDG. Norman Sauter, Florence Deeds and children, James Nelson, Les Crane and children and Sharon Rohrer cleaned and refurnished the stage. The new Grange sign was hung. Plans to fix the basement for additional rooms was postponed until later.

The women of Curtin have been enjoying lessons on fibre flower making at Mrs. Ames Ceramic Shop the last two weeks with instructions by Mrs. Mills of Blackbutte. They have learned to make carnations, violets and camellias.

The Grange school is planning a variety show for Friday night April 1 at the Grange hall. Admission for adults is 50c and children, 25c. The proceeds will go for baseball uniforms for the boys.
