

HONORED GUEST ABSENT

PITTSBURGH — Because he would skip a class, Albert Wiggins, Ohio State University sophomore swimming sensation, missed a big banquet honoring him for his athletic prowess.

The 19-year-old Pittsburgh resident got tied up in heavy traffic after attending a late afternoon class and failed to make an airplane connection to the Steel City in time for the banquet.

He was honored as the outstanding athlete for 1954 in the Allegheny Mountain Assn. (western Pennsylvania) of the Amateur Athletic Union. The dinner was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

TECHNICAL KO

TEMPLE, Tex. — When the lights went out, three Golden Glove fighters went out of the city recreation center. The State Training school, for whom they were competing, said they were at the school for burglary.

DEER HUNTERS WELCOMED

HELENA, Mont. — Montana is dangling a lure before out-state deer hunters. Non-Montans, who have paid $100 each for a big game license, now may hunt deer and antelope for only a $20 state fee. The reduction was made by the Legislature after eastern Montana farmers and ranchers complained that too many deer and pronghorns have been damaging grain fields or eating into haystacks. The $20 fee prevails only for 1955 and 1956.

CORVALLIS — Wet grounds forced cancellation of a baseball game scheduled here Friday between Oregon State and Portland University.

The teams next are scheduled to meet in Portland Monday night. Portland also is scheduled to play Oregon in a doubleheader Tuesday.

Relays To Feature World Discus Titlist

SALEM, Ore. — The mammoth Willamette Relays, featuring some 2,500 athletes, in a 5-hour-long track meet, will be run off at Willamette University Saturday.

The athletes range from Fortune Gordien, world recordholder in the discus throw, down to young hopefuls just starting their track careers in high school.

Gordien, former University of Minnesota athlete, whose record throw was 194 feet, 6 inches, will give an exhibition in discus throwing.

There will be red-hot competition for the entries from 22 Northwest colleges and 101 Washington and Oregon high schools.

In the college 100-yard dash division, for example, there will be two men who have run the event in 10 seconds flat, and five others who have bettered that time.

They include Washington State's Bob Gary at 9.6 seconds, Bruce Springbett of Oregon and Wall Hill of Seattle Pacific at 9.7, Caley Cook of Lewis and Clark College and Ron Schloesser of Whitworth at 9.8; and Bill Morrison of Washington State and Bob Leadbetter of Washington at 10 flat.

The meet is to start at 1 p.m. with the final event scheduled to begin at 5:45 p.m.

FUTURE DEPENDENT

BOSTON — Tony DeMarco's chances of winning the welterweight boxing title from champion Johnny Saxton tonight depend largely on whether the local slugger can prove he's not a bleeder.

The healed knot of cartilage over DeMarco's left eye and the chin a sparman cut last December could be decisive in the 15-round battle for the 147-pound crown.

The Boston Garden fight will not be televised or broadcast.

YOUNG MEETS GRAHAM

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — Young, ambitious Chico Vidlar has another 10-round date tonight with Billy Graham, the ring veteran who once almost had within his grasp the world welterweight championship Ohio years for.

The bout will be telecast and broadcast by NBC at 10 p.m. EST.

College Hoop Scoring Reaches All-Time High

NEW YORK — With the aid of the "bonus" free throw—or perhaps because of it—college basketball scoring hit its all-time high during the 1954-55 season and fouling dipped to its lowest level in six seasons.

Final NCAA Service Bureau statistics for major college basketball, released Friday, showed an average 2-team total of 145.3

COUNTY SCHOOLS SET

These Douglas County schools will enter participants in the Willamette Relays this weekend at Salem. The three are Days Creek, Yoncalla and Drain.

points a game during the past season and an average of 37.8 fouls called in each game.

The statistics embraced 3,903 games in which 567,119 points were scored.

The previous scoring high was 138.0 points a game in 1953. Last year the figure dropped to 137.9, the first decrease since the center jump was eliminated in 1938.

The all-time low in personal fouls was 36.9 a game in 1948 and the high 44.9 in 1952.

New records for shooting accuracy also was set as the major college players made 36.9 per cent of their field goal attempts and 66.5 per cent of their free throws, as compared to 35.4 and 65.2 last year.

For the third straight year, Furman won the team scoring championship with its third record-breaking feat. The Paladins, first major college team to reach the 90-point level for a full season with 90.2 in 1953, raised that mark to 91.7 last year and to 95.3 during the past season.

San Francisco, the National Collegiate champion, won the defensive title, allowing an average of only 52.1 points a game in 29 contests, including the NCAA tournament.

Exhibition Games Resemble Championship Playoffs In Major Loop Action Thursday

NO STALLING—Jim Hurley, American League umpire (right), explains the new 20-second rule to Yankee hurriers Ed Lopat (left), and Bob Grim at their St. Petersburg, Fla. training camp. Pitchers have to deliver the ball in that length of time. Hurley and ump's will have to add a stop watch to their gear to detect violators.

The Associated Press Exhibition baseball almost had the air of championship competition about it yesterday, what with managers giving strategy a good workout and pinch hitters and relievers getting the spotlight.

Four of the games were decided by one run, including a 3-2 decision by the Milwaukee Braves over the Brooklyn Dodgers as rookie Al Facchini broke up a 2-2 tie between the two National League contenders with a pinch single in the eighth.

With less than two weeks remaining before opening day, there was only one game that had more wallop than finesse. That was a 14-11 comedy won from the world champion New York Giants by the Cleveland Indians. Among other things, there were 18 ground-rule doubles, caused by an overflow San Antonio crowd of 11,649, and a short skirmish in which Umpire Lon Warneke, onetime Gas House Gang pitcher, pushed a local peace officer off the field.

Brooklyn and Milwaukee were neck and neck until Facchini, up from Corpus Christi of the Big State League, dropped his shot into left with the bases jammed. The hit came off Tom LaSorda who came on after Ron Negray had walked three with one out. LaSorda, a lefty, fanned pinch hitter Andy Paiko before running into Facchini.

Brooklyn played first baseman Gil Hodges in right, second baseman Junior Gilliam in left and shortstop PeeWee Reese at second. "Nothing significant," said Manager Walt Alston. "I just wanted to see what the boys can do."

Mickey Vernon lined a two-out pinch single in the eighth to score the winning run in Washington's 4-3 triumph over Cincinnati.

Lino Donoso, a left-handed reliever, got the job done for Pittsburgh in a 6-5 success against Baltimore by fanning Hal Smith with the bases full in the ninth.

Bob Tiefenauer piled a similar pitching trick for the St. Louis Cardinals, working out of a jam with his knuckler after the Chicago White Sox had loaded the bases with none out in the eighth. Rip Repulski's 10th inning single gave it to the Cards 3-2.

The Red Sox ganged up on Rookie Jack Meyer for all the runs during the first six innings against the Philadelphia Phillies before veteran Murry Dickson set down nine Boston batters in the final three frames. Boston won 6-4.

The Giants and Indians each had 9 of the 15 automatic two-base hits in their 25-hit slugfest that also had five errors. Cleveland clubbed Sal Maglie for eight runs and 10 hits in 3 1/3 innings. Ralph Kiner hit a two-run homer for the Tribe. Willie Mays and Al Dark did the same for New York.

The crowd caused Umpire Ed Runge to rule interference in calling a Giants fly out in the eighth. That led to an argument between Runge and manager Leo Durocher of the Giants. And when the cop tried to butt in, Warneke pushed him out.

Syracuse Takes Lead In NBC Championships

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — The Syracuse Nationals used a Fort Wayne boy to turn their home-court whammy on the Pistons and take a first-game lead in the National Basketball Assn. championship best-of-7 playoff.

Syracuse was struggling to overcome a 75-71 deficit in Thursday night's tension-packed fray when young Dick Farley, who lives in Fort Wayne, sank a rebound and netted two foul shots to spark the Nats to an 88-82 victory.

Red Rocha formerly of Oregon State, and Paul Seymour led the Nats' point production with 19 and 17 respectively. Fort Wayne's Larry Foust was high with 26.
