FULLERTON PTA TO HAVE PANEL DISCUSSION AT MEETING MONDAY EVENING
 The Fullerton PTA will hold its regular meeting Monday night, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. The theme for the evening will be "Let's Honor Our Youth."
 Dr. James Millar, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will be the guest speaker. He will speak on the subject "Youth in This World Today" and then will be moderator for a panel discussion on the subject "What is Right With Our Youth Today." This panel will be composed of six sixth graders from the school. The youth will know the topic but the discussion will be unrehearsed.
 The first grade teachers, Mrs. Bodenner, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Meiling, Mrs. Richman and Mrs. Wikoff, have planned displays and a demonstration of their school work. Mrs. Bodenner, chairman of this portion of the program, will explain the technique of teaching children to read. The teachers will be glad to answer any questions concerning their work at the close of the meeting.
 The youth leaders of the school will be recognized. The Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, Cub Scouts, and 4-H Girls will furnish displays of their work. The 4-H Girls will present a humorous skit "Postures On Parade" under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Fred Harder.
MRS. NOBLE TO BE GUEST SPEAKER TUESDAY
 Mrs. Homer M. Noble of Oakland will be the guest speaker on the topic "Birds," at a meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club next Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. at the clubhouse according to an announcement by Mrs. H. F. Beauchamp, chairman for the day.
 Mrs. Noble is the wife of the pastor of the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church. She is a bird enthusiast and is now serving as Impulse District Bird chairman of the Federated Garden Clubs. She has been a speaker at numerous garden club meetings in the area and comes with the enthusiastic recommendation of her earlier audiences.
 Special music for the meeting is being arranged by Mrs. Clyde Carstens. Tea chairman for the day are Mrs. Marshall Haughn and Mrs. Fred Herman assisted by members of group eight.

WILBUR COMMUNITY CLUB ENJOYS SOCIAL EVENING
 The Wilbur Community Club met Friday evening at the Wilbur school. It was reported that $39.10 was made on the sale of pie and coffee at the Talent Show presented March 4. Mrs. Boni Yraguen, president, expressed her appreciation to everyone who helped make the program a success. She also thanked Mrs. J. E. Thomas and Oakes Grocery for sharing the expenses of the show.
 It was announced that the April meeting would be the annual Ice Cream Social. The president appointed the following nominating committee: Mrs. Ed Blondell, Mrs. Ray Ames and Mrs. Cecil Langdon.
 Following the meeting, Nenzie Lee and Mrs. Thomas showed movies and slides taken during the talent show. A feature movie "Little Big Horn" was also shown. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Clarence Young and Mrs. Doug Hart.
CANYONVILLE CHURCH PLANS HAM DINNER
 A southern style ham dinner to be given at the Methodist church in Canyonville Wednesday evening, April 13, was planned at the last meeting of the Wesleyan Guild at the home of Mrs. Gene Cherwink near Riddle.
 The dinner will be served buffet style by the group who has successfully served many dinners this way. Serving will begin at 6 p.m.
 The group discussed further joining the WSCS but voted against the move at this time. Plans were made to paint the church kitchen, and bills incurred for painting the parsonage were allowed.

ROSE PTA CARD PARTY TO BE THIS EVENING
