All But One Korean War Prisoner Selects Home
NEW DELHI — Prime Minister Nehru said Thursday all but one of 87 Korean War prisoners brought to India have now decided where they want to live.

Answering questions in parliament, he said 28 had picked Mexico, 15 Argentina, 3 Brazil, 2 the Dominican Republic, 1 Yugoslavia and 1 India. Five had decided to go to North Korea and one to Red China, he added, but he did not identify their original allegiance.

The cost of their travel, when arranged, will be paid by the two commands which fought in Korea, Nehru said.

Seventy-four of the prisoners were originally North Korean, 11 Red Chinese, two South Koreans.

Eighty-eight POWs were brought to India originally after they had rejected communism and refused also to go to South Korea. One was later repatriated to Red China at his own request.

Home For Vacation — Larry Burr, student at Pacific College, arrived in Roseburg Friday to spend the Easter spring vacation visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burr.
