WEE STITCHERS CLUB STARTS NEW PROJECTS

The Wee Stitchers, youngest 4-H group at Umpqua, held a meeting at noon Monday at the school. Their president, Bernice Judd, conducted the meeting with 18 girls and their junior leader, Marietta Munson, answering roll call.

They are working on the three projects that must be completed before achievement day. Betty Teller gave the three new aims for each member. They are: to do a good turn for someone each day, to obey direction and to do all jobs well.

A talk on needles was given by Diane Coffey. Judy Bacon gave a demonstration of using a paper sack in sewing.
