World Traveler Speaker At Yoncalla Study Club

Members and guests of the Yoncalla Study Club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Loyd Pinkston and Mrs. Larry Jazek at a very enjoyable meeting Thursday afternoon at the Jazek's lovely new home in Elkhead. The Easter motif was carried out in the decorations with spring beauties and potted plants artistically arranged in the large rooms. Twenty four members and guests were present. An Easter luncheon was served at one o'clock.

Following the luncheon and social hour, Mrs. J. N. Sparks, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Harold Boucock gave the devotion, an Easter message in verse. Group singing followed. Cloyce Avey, principal of the Yoncalla High School, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. George Carver, world traveler and educator from Great Britain. Dr. Carver spoke on "The greatest threat to the democratic nations, not war, or aggressors, but apathy, indifference and weak leaders." It was a stirring lecture, and thanks are due to Mr. Avey for sharing his high school assembly speaker with the Study Club.

Following the lecture a short business meeting was held. Mrs. Fred Merk, chairman of the committee for entertaining the senior girls, called a meeting. Mrs. Jean Carlson of Drain extended the Yoncalla Club an invitation to attend the Roseburg Symphony concert to be held in Drain April 24. This symphony concert is free to all North Douglas County people.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Harold Boucock home in Scotts Valley April 21, with Mrs. Jean Martin as co-hostess.

MRS. JOHNNIE OTT, above, poses for her wedding portrait following her marriage April 2 at the Methodist Church in Myrtle Creek. The bride, Florence Payne, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Payne of Myrtle Creek, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mamie Ott of Roseburg. (Pictures by Warren Studio).

At a pretty wedding Saturday, April 2, at the Myrtle Creek Methodist Church Miss Florence Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Payne of Myrtle Creek, became the bride of Johnnie Ott, son of Mrs. Mamie Ott of Roseburg. The Rev. Wayne Brown performed the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony before fifty friends and relatives in candlelight. Daffodils and fern formed the decorations.

The bride was lovely in a white satin dress with leaf design lace, net skirt and a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of red roses and white stephanotis. Maid of honor was Miss Marjorie Frenness, and bridesmaids were Ethelene Benn and Wanda Leonard, who were dressed in blue and carried bouquets of carnations and sweetpeas. Marie Malkowski, dressed in pink, was flower girl. Candelighters were Gloria Burnett and Mary Lynn Jones.

Best man was Edgar Hanson and ushers were Perry Ott and Don Ott, brothers of the bridegroom. Mrs. Boyd Foley sang "Because" and "Always."

A reception was held in the church parlors, after which the couple left on a wedding trip through southern Oregon. Mr. Ott attended school in Marcola, Ore., and is employed by the Canvon Logging Co. The bride attended the Myrtle Creek Schools and is employed as bookkeeper by the U.S. National Bank.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. James Payne, Oakridge, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Ott and Don, Hal and Sherry; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis, Mrs. Marjorie Molkowski and Marie, all of Springfield; and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crockett and Sharon and Glenna of Eugene.
