

Alfred A. Bakke Rites Wednesday

Alfred Arne Bakke, 74, Myrtle Creek, died Saturday afternoon after a short illness. He was born in Oslo, Norway, April 5, 1881. He had lived in Oregon for the past 40 years, including 12 years in Roseburg. He moved to Myrtle Creek about a year ago. He was a Full Gospel evangelist. Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Alf Foshaug of Myrtle Creek, Mrs. Harold Franklin of Hillsboro and Mrs. H. B. Lowry of Portland; six sons, Brownie of Olympia, E. A. of Myrtle Creek, Norman O. of Anchorage, Alaska, Kermit and Roy, both of Portland, and Max of Ottumwa, Iowa. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Little Chapel of the Chimes, Portland. Gantz Mortuary, Myrtle Creek, had charge of local arrangements.

Dulles Tells Ike Of Reds Buildup Opposite Formosa

"nothing should be taken for granted" on the basis of last week's negotiations between Russia and Austria on an Austrian independence treaty. The secretary did say, however, that it seems the Western nations, in the light of those negotiations, "are beginning to reap the first fruits of a policy of patient firmness" toward Russia. Because of the developments looking toward an Austrian treaty, the prospects for a Big Four conference are "encouraging" if "the full facts on the Moscow negotiations do not disillusion us." There has been "steady progress toward putting into effect the Paris agreements to rearm West Germany and restore its sovereignty, and toward creation of a Western European Union."

Victim Of Bad Burns Recovering At Home

Mrs. Richard (LaVerne) West of Glendale is recovering satisfactorily at her home from severe burns received in an accident Friday night. Mrs. West, 45, was struck by a car while crossing a street. Her husband and her were both treated at Douglas Community Hospital. Mrs. West received third-degree burns on her back and hips, in addition to other burns, when a spark from a fireplace caught her dress on fire. Her husband was burned on the hands when he came to her assistance. Mrs. West is now in pressure bandages. She may have to undergo skin grafting after the burned areas heal.

TRIOCIN BLOTS OUT HICKIES INSTANTLY!

Blots out embarrassing blemishes instantly! Blends with your skin best of all!

THURSDAY P.M.

Blots out embarrassing blemishes instantly! Blends with your skin best of all!

FRIDAY NOON

Blots out embarrassing blemishes instantly! Blends with your skin best of all!

FRIDAY P.M.

Clears up acne faster! Often in 24 hours, your skin can meet your date-line!

On the job—or on a date—don't let unsightly acne rob your confidence, now that TRIOCIN can rescue you! Hatful eruptions can be concealed instantly—can be improved, often in 24 hours! TRIOCIN relieves overactive oil glands and thickening pores. It discourages bacteria growth, thus preventing further infection. Get TRIOCIN right away! It's 3 ways better! A $1.29 tube can save a lot of heartbreak!

Also use TRIOCIN Blue Foam first, the mildest bubble-foam ever designed for cleansing sensitive skins. Only 89¢. Both products available at all druggists.

improves acne... OFTEN IN 24 hours!

Pay Less Drug Store

142 N. Jackson—Roseburg

Olds & King To Build Branch Portland Store

PORTLAND (AP) — Plans for a three-million-dollar branch store on Portland's East Side were announced Saturday by Olds & King department store. The new structure will be part of the Gateway Shopping Center near N.E. 98th Ave. and Halsey St. A big food store, 20 specialty shops and a branch bank already are planned for the center.

Three Teenagers Killed In Highway Accident

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — Four teenagers were killed and three others seriously injured when their speeding car careened from a highway and crashed into a tree Friday night, the California Highway Patrol reported. Investigating officers said the sedan must have been traveling at "terrific speed." An ambulance driver said one of the bodies was buried against a power pole with such force that a section at the top of the pole was snapped off. A 14-year-old boy and six girls were in the car on their way home from a movie at Fremont Junior High School. All of the youths lived in Pomona. The dead were identified as Raymond Reyes, 14, Gloria Ortiz, 13, Helen Trujillo, 18, and Carla Mascarones, 18. Critically injured were Trina Alaniz, 16, and Virginia Ortiz, 16. Rosie Reyes, 18, driver of the car, suffered serious injuries.

First Graders' Parents Given Discussion Bid

Parents of children who will become first graders in the fall are invited to a discussion on preparing a child for school, at the West Sutherland Elementary School. The meeting will take place in the multi-purpose room at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday. The physical, emotional and mental aspects of preparing a child for entrance into school will be discussed. Mrs. Bernice Smith, school nurse, will be present to talk about the school health program and the pre-school physical examination. Also scheduled to be present are Supt. William Riddleberger, the elementary principals and the first grade teachers. Books will be distributed by the Sutherland PTA, entitled, "Janie Learns To Read." There will be a nursery conducted, where mothers attending the meeting may leave smaller children.

Asian-African Unity For Peace Keynote Talk

(Continued from Page One) en-point agenda drawn in only general terms. The agenda items were cultural cooperation, economic cooperation, problems of dependent people, human rights and self determination, use of nuclear energy, weapons of mass destruction and promotion of world peace and cooperation. Chinese Premier Chou refused to discuss the Formosa situation on his arrival at Bandung. Instead he issued a written statement charging the Western powers are trying to sabotage the Bandung conference. An unofficial American observer at the conference, Negro Congressman Adam Powell (D-N.Y.), was quick to challenge Chou's charge against the West. "Anyone who says the United States wants to sabotage this conference is a liar," he told a news conference. CLOCK FOUND An electric clock reported stolen from the apartment of George E. Schneider, 120 S. Pine St., was recovered by Roseburg police Sunday morning. Officers found the clock under some bushes in front of the Schneider apartment about 2 a.m. No complaints were lodged. CHAINS NEEDED SALEM (AP) — Chains are absolutely necessary on the Pacific Highway between Weed and Shasta in California, the Oregon Highway Commission warned Monday. The commission also said chains are required on the Green Springs Highway between Klamath Falls and Ashland. It advised motorists to carry chains in Willamette Pass and on the route from Government Camp to Timberline.

NEW FIRST AID CLASS

A new Red Cross first aid class under the direction of J. Emery Schultz, will get under way at the Winston Fire Hall Tuesday at 7 p.m. Persons wishing to register for the class should be present at that time.

APPLIANCE REPAIRS IN YOUR HOME

WE REPAIR

- ELECTRIC RANGES
- AUTOMATIC WASHERS
- CLOTHES DRYERS
- DISHWASHERS
- WATER HEATERS

ASK OUR SERVICE MEN FOR LAMPS AND FUSES. THEY ARE STOCKED IN SERVICE TRUCKS. Phone 3-5521 For Service

Trowbridge ELECTRIC CO.

136 N. Jackson St. OR 3-5521

Bloody Outbreak Of Crazy Negro Prisoners In Texas Ends With Five Persons In Hospital, One Near Death

RUSK, Tex. (AP) — A Negro patient who tried to save a ward attendant from a brutal beating in Saturday's riot by 80 criminally insane Negroes lingered near death today at Rusk State Hospital.

Four other persons of 13 injured in the bloody uprising remained hospitalized.

Pharo Tilley, near death from multiple skull fractures, was beaten when he tried to help H. B. Taylor, a ward attendant also hospitalized from severe blows on the head and body from a baseball bat. In Ward 7, where a sadistic murderer and a sex fiend led the riot, an uneasy calm prevailed.

The 80 rioters Saturday morning and held Hospital Supt. Dr. James Castner and two others hostage six hours. Texas Ranger Capt. Bob Crowder persuaded Ben Riley, 22, the riot's "brain," to call it off. Riley and Joe Murphy, the other ringleader, rattled off a long list of complaints as the reason for the riot.

The basic complaint, Castner said, apparently was their contention attendants mistreated them. No proof of this was found. 16 Persons Injured

Mrs. George (Joe June) Millet, Camas Valley, 30, and her daughter Lora, 11, both received injuries to their left knees. They were treated and released. Mrs. Millet told officers she was traveling north when she saw a car stopping ahead of her vehicle. She said she was going too fast to avoid a collision. She swerved off the highway and hit a light pole. Officers issued no citations.

A two-car collision Sunday morning found one driver, Gordon Allen, arrested on a charge of having no driver's license. Police said Allen, 29, 2035 Vine St., raked the left side of another car as he attempted to pass improperly. Officers said Oren Polk, 62, 731 E. 1st Ave. N., was attempting to make a left hand turn at the intersection of E. 9th Street and East 2nd Avenue South. Damage to Polk's car was estimated at $250 and damage to Allen's vehicle was placed at $75, according to officers.

Hancock was severely beaten. He suffered a broken arm, hand, and contusions. The crazed Negroes tried to give him electrical shock treatment used to treat their mental ill but could not work the machine. Five hospital officials or attendants were injured and eight patients.

Weekend Accidents Find Two Injured Slightly

Two minor weekend automobile accidents marred what otherwise was a safe driving period in Central Douglas County. A one-way accident on S. Stephens Street near W. Rice Street sent two persons to Douglas Community Hospital for out-patient treatment.

Mrs. George (Joe June) Millet, Camas Valley, 30, and her daughter Lora, 11, both received injuries to their left knees. They were treated and released. Mrs. Millet told officers she was traveling north when she saw a car stopping ahead of her vehicle. She said she was going too fast to avoid a collision. She swerved off the highway and hit a light pole. Officers issued no citations.

Albert Einstein, Noted Mathematician, Passes

(Continued from Page One) because of "my passionate sense of social justice and social responsibilities." Einstein was born in Ulm, Germany in 1879 of middle class Jewish parents. He came to the United States in 1933 as a voluntary exile from Germany, where the Nazis listed him as "an enemy of the state." Though few people understood Einstein's complex theories, his work is one of the important bases of today's electronic and television developments which rely partly on industries, and the great industrial laws of atomic mass and energy. He received the Nobel Prize in physics in 1921 and the world hooped honors and adulation upon the modest scientist, who pleaded: "Let every man be respected as individual and no man idolized. It is an irony of fate that I myself have been the recipient of excessive admiration and respect from my fellows through no fault of my own." Personal Glory Shunned The life of this amazing intellectual giant was simple and modest. His disdain for personal glory and material gain were almost a legend. His baggy-clad figure, a pipe perpetually in his mouth, and his long shaggy white hair and moustache, made him instantly recognizable almost anywhere in the world. Einstein was married twice. First in 1903 to Mileva Marie, a Serbian Catholic whom he later divorced. They had two sons, Albert and Edward. The second marriage, in 1919 was to Elsa Einstein, his first cousin, who bore him two daughters, Ilse, who died in 1934, and Margot. After his second wife's death in 1936, Einstein lived a secluded life in Princeton with his daughter Margot, and his housekeeper-secretary, Miss Helen Dukas.

George E. Wilson, Milo, Succumbs At Hospital

George E. Wilson, 53, a resident of Milo, died Sunday at a local hospital after a lingering illness. Wilson had been a resident of Milo for the last four years. Before that he was a cook in the Merchant Marine. He has no known relatives. Graveside funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Canyonville Cemetery. The Rev. Willard Fennerson of Milo will officiate. Roseburg Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Baby Sitter Never Faxed That She'd Be Convicted

EPHRATA, Wash. (AP) — Charlotte May Brewer, 30-year-old ex-baby sitter freed of a first degree murder charge Friday, said Saturday morning that she never doubted that she would be judged innocent. "I had great faith," Miss Brewer said in a soft voice. "From the very beginning I had no qualms. I felt justice had to prevail. It was God's will more than any other."

Miss Brewer who has gone by recently, said she would continue to use the name of Carnaghan until she marries William F. Fennel, a San Francisco seaman to whom she is engaged. The attractive red-haired typist said she planned to remain in Soap Lake for a week and then perhaps visit her brother, William I. Brewer of Nampa, Idaho. She said she then planned to return to San Francisco where she was working as a secretary when she was arrested March 17.

"He must be someone important! He's wearing a suit I just know has been Sanitone Dry Cleaned."

Nothing like Sanitone's deep down cleansing action to give your clothes that immaculate, well-groomed look. Not only gets out every trace of grime and stains, but also restores that fresh like-new look to colors, patterns and textures. Phone for service today.

10% DISCOUNT FOR CASH AND CARRY

Honn's NEW METHOD Cleaners

317 EAST DOUGLAS STREET Phone ORchard 3-8291 ALWAYS PLENTY OF FREE PARKING

Longtime Resident Succumbs Saturday

Funeral services for Eurvey Alvin Hubbard, 78, resident of this community since 1912, are scheduled Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the chapel of Long & Orr Mortuary, Roseburg. Hubbard died Saturday at his home at 1405 Frear Rd. following a long illness. He was born at Elkhart, Ind., Sept. 3, 1876, and was married at Shell Lake, Wis., in 1898, to Kathryn I. Taylor. She preceded him in death in August 1949. He came to Roseburg from Idaho in 1912 to live at Dillard and Roseburg except for a two-year period (1932 to 1934) when he made his home at Pasco, Wash. Hubbard was a member of the First Baptist Church. Surviving are two sons, H. W. and A.M., both of Roseburg, and two daughters, Mrs. W. H. (Lucille) McClain of Roseburg and Mrs. Henry (Gladys) Christensen of North Bend. He also is survived by two brothers, Hart of Coulee Dam, Wash., and James of Caldwell, Mont.; four sisters, Mrs. Nettie Myrtle Hubbard, Miss Loretta Hubbard and Mrs. Alice Schartner, all of Cumberland, Wis.; four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Heart Attack Fatal To Albert M. Weiss

Albert Max Weiss, 52, died as the result of a heart attack Sunday morning at his home at Winchester. He was born in Roseburg July 25, 1902, the son of the late Max and Annie Weiss. He attended Roseburg schools and for many years has been employed by the Douglas Ice and Storage Co. and later by the Douglas Distributing Co. as driver salesman. He was a member of the Roseburg Lodge No. 326, BPO Elks, and the Teamsters Union, AFL. Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Harold V. (Lillian) Maze and Mrs. Clara Ray, both of Alameda, Calif. Funeral services will be held in the Chapel of Long and Orr Mortuary at 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 19. Ritualistic services will be under the auspices of the Roseburg Lodge of BPO Elks. Following the service, the body will be taken to Eugene for cremation services at Rest Haven Memorial Park.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

Regular Meals Halt Songs Orgy In K-Falls Jail

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — The strains of such songs as "Save the Bones for Henry Jones," "Cause He Don't Eat No Meat," have faded from the jailhouse here. That was one of the favorites of five women prisoners who Sunday called off a five-night dusk-to-dawn singing marathon. The singing started as a lark last Tuesday night when the women held an impromptu party because friends had sent them food and candy. The next day, as punishment, they were put on bread and water rations. Saturday, after they refused to quit, their bedding was removed from their cell. A truce was reached with sleepy jailers Sunday. The women agreed to quit singing after Sheriff Murray Britton agreed to serve them regular meals. The women, all arrested at different times, are serving varying sentences on such charges as vagrancy, disorderly conduct and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an automobile. One of them is Marcia Anderson, 19, who is serving 60 days for disorderly conduct—accused of biting a policeman on the hand when he arrested her for drunkenness.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Henry Peck, pastor of the Melrose Community Church will officiate. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Henry Peck, pastor of the Melrose Community Church will officiate. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Henry Peck, pastor of the Melrose Community Church will officiate. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Henry Peck, pastor of the Melrose Community Church will officiate. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Henry Peck, pastor of the Melrose Community Church will officiate. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Henry Peck, pastor of the Melrose Community Church will officiate. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Henry Peck, pastor of the Melrose Community Church will officiate. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

C. H. Atterbury, Son Of Pioneers, Succumbs Sunday

Clinton Henry (Kit) Atterbury, 75, Roseburg, died Sunday following a prolonged illness. He was born at Glendale on Oct. 3, 1879, the son of Timothy and Agnes Shaff Atterbury, pioneer Douglas County family, who came to Oregon in the 1850s. Atterbury moved to Eastern Oregon near Vale where he ranched until about 1941 when he moved to Portland. For the past seven years, he had made his home in Roseburg. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary. Surviving are three brothers, E. M. John Atterbury, of Roseburg, Milo of Albany and Jess E. of Roseburg. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services are scheduled in the chapel of the