PANEL DISCUSSION FEATURED AT YONCALLA PTA MEET

The regular meeting of the Yoncalla PTA was held Monday evening at the grade school with Mrs. Tim Ellis, president, presiding. A senior girls panel discussed "How and Why I expect to further my education." The girls told what college they were going to attend this fall, and why, also what they expected to teach following their graduation from college.

Girls taking part in the discussion were Nadine Phillips, Ann Lasswell, Lois Parks, Kathleen Burns, Joan Scott and Verna Buck, chairman of the group. The high school band in their uniforms played two numbers. Mrs. Felix Latham's eighth grade won the room count. The seventh grade room mothers served a delicious lunch at the close of the meeting. All incoming officers were present. Mrs. Rose Phillips, new president elect, will attend the state convention.

SUTHERLIN PNG CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE SUPPER

The Easter motif was carried out in the decorations last Tuesday evening when Mrs. Ella Wegner, entertained the Past Noble Grands Club at a seven-thirty o'clock dinner supper at her home on Walte Avenue. Easter baskets and chickens with a lovely centerpiece of pink and white hyacinths, formed the table decorations. Twelve members were present to enjoy the occasion.

A short business meeting was held after the supper and various matters were transacted and several members who had been ill were reported as better. A social hour of games was enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, May 3, with Mrs. Bertha Barge, as hostess, and the usual exchange of May baskets is planned.

WEE STITCHERS MEET AT UMPQUA

The Wee Stitchers, 4-H Club of Umpqua met at the school at noon Monday for a regular meeting. The president opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H pledge. Little coat pins, which the girls call "Starch" were presented to all the members who had completed the first two projects of their work. Plans were started for a meeting with the older club, where all the girls will take part in a small fashion show of the things they have made.

The Waltham League of St. John's Lutheran Church of Sutherlin met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman at Fair Oaks last Monday evening.

After a brief business session, refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Zagei Monday evening, April 18.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS PRESENT PROGRAM AT BLUE STAR MEET

Blue Star Mothers, Chapter No. 4, met recently at the Veterans Hall with the president in charge and all officers present. Mrs. J. Fueston was initiated into membership. Convention plans were made and delegates elected. All members planning to go to Grants Pass, April 28 are to call Mrs. Foster or Mrs. Davis by Monday. Thank you letters were read from families receiving quilts from the organization. Mrs. Talburt, Mrs. Bibber and Mrs. Davis delivered the baby shower gifts to Mrs. Anderson from the group. Six members are volunteering for Ground Observer work. Color bearers were selected: Betty Foster, Mrs. Davis, Billy Noble, Mrs. Calkins and Mrs. Johnson.

Twelve Camp Fire Girls from the Ki Yutanda group and their leader, Mrs. Tolteon presented a program and served cookies and coffee after the meeting.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS MEET AT DILLARD CHURCH

Blue Star Mothers, No. 7, held a business meeting Friday afternoon at the Dillard Methodist Church. Three of the members were reported ill. Mrs. Opal Hull, Mrs. Jean Hill and Mrs. Edna Perkins. Mrs. Camelia Williams was appointed sunshine chairman. A discussion was held on attending the convention to be held Thursday, April 28, at Grants Pass. Mrs. Zillah Wade was appointed the delegate along with president, Mrs. Cecelia Carter. All members are invited to attend.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the committee, Mrs. Selma Dozier and Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, to: Mrs. Alice Hill, Mrs. Cecelia Carter, Mrs. Beulah Pulley, Mrs. Ethel Moon, Mrs. Zillah Wade and Mrs. Camelia Williams.

YONCALLA GROUPS HAVE EASTER ACTIVITIES

The primary class of the Yoncalla Methodist Church enjoyed an Easter party in the recreation room of the church Saturday afternoon. Under the leadership of Mrs. Estes, Mrs. Pontius, Mrs. Loyd Means and Miss Nancy Thompson, the little tots played games and gathered eggs. Delicious refreshments were served by the leaders to about 40 little tots.

Sunrise services were held at the Carl Conaway home in Scotts Valley Sunday morning for members of the Yoncalla Church of Christ. An Easter breakfast was served, followed by a very impressive program. About 30 members were present.

MRS. HOYLE HOSTS CAMAS GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Harry Boyle was hostess to the Camas Valley Garden Club Monday, and entertained the group at the beautiful banquet room at Bart's Cafe. A guest, Mrs. Beecher of Roseburg, gave the club a splendid talk on the work of the Red Cross in Douglas County. There were 20 members present. Mrs. Lee Banks was in charge of the program, which was on "Shade Loving Plants." The next meeting of the club will be May 3 with Mrs. Banks as hostess, and Mrs. Ted Wiley will be in charge of the program, "Wild Flowers."

VISITORS ATTEND OAKLAND BETHEL MEET

Initiation was held Wednesday evening for Peggy Murphy and Norma Perry at the regular meeting of Oakland Jobs Daughters No. 42. Plans were made for those attending the grand session in Portland. Mrs. Leo Sparks reported on the guardian dinner held in March. Nancy Sparks reported on a visit to Myrtle Creek Bethel; and Queen Mary Ellen Erickson told of the group's church Sunday. Librarian Jean Hewitt reported on the founding of Jobs Daughters. Girls were asked to assist with Easter seal sales.

Visitors were: Roy Coburn, vice associate grand guardian of Oregon; Mrs. Cora Young, past grand guardian; and Carol Amundson, honored queen of Winston-Dillard Bethel.

Decorating committee was Carol Clark and Darlene Cota. Janet Anderson, Peggy Austin, Cheryl Vandenberg, Norene Watman and Leone Riggs were on the refreshment committee.

YONCALLA SOCIETY MEETS ON TUESDAY

Members of the Missionary society of the Yoncalla Church of Christ held a meeting in the old church building Tuesday afternoon. The lesson was on various missionaries in Japan, Korea and Okinawa. Readings were given on work done by the Neilsens and Hammonds. Both have held services in the Yoncalla Church before going overseas. Mrs. Dan Wright had charge of the program and Mrs. Harold Boucock had the devotions.

The members decided to send a wedding gift to Miss Phyllis Wright, whose marriage took place in Salt Lake City, Utah, recently. They also took up a collection to give to the Al Hammond family. The young people of the church sponsored a winner roast in the new Church of Christ in Yoncalla recently with the Rev. and Mrs. Chester Steward and Mrs. Carl Conaway, chaperones.

SUTHERLIN HEC MEETS AT LUNCHEON

The Home Economics Club of Sutherlin Grange met Monday at the hall at a delightful noon potluck dinner with Mrs. Erma Buck and Mrs. Evelyn Froischer as hostesses. The Easter motif was carried out in the table decorations. Fifteen members and two guests Mrs. Orville Sconce and Mrs. Felix Bottichio, were seated at the table.

Plans were made for the dinner that the ladies will serve Tuesday, April 12 for the Lady Lions. The balance of the afternoon was spent working on a quilt.

THE NEXT MEETING OF THE CLUB WILL BE HELD MONDAY, MAY 2, WITH MRS. ELLEN LEISINGER AND MRS. GERTRUDE BRUNGLE AS HOSTESSES.

BISCUIT MAKING PROJECT GIVEN AT COOKING CLUB

Miss Dixie Wootton gave a demonstration on making baking powder biscuits at the recent meeting of the Spicy Chicks 4-H Cooking Club at the Wootton home. Pledges, songs and yells were given.
