SIDELINERS HONORED AT GLENDALE OES MEET

The Glendale Chapter of the Eastern Star met at the IOOF Hall Tuesday night and paid special honor to the sideliners of the group. Each of the sideliners was presented Easter flowers from the worthy matron, Lucille Harris, and worthy patron Ray Cox, by twelve ladies dressed in pastel formal and Easter hats.
The worthy matron was also surprised by her officers and was presented with a huge silver tray, loaded with flower bulbs of all kinds wrapped in gay paper, and with a beautiful birthday cake.
The dining room was beautifully decorated. Tables were arranged to form a cross and covered with white linen. Bowls of white blossoms with tiny Easter hats pinned on the limbs, pastel-colored tapers, and a beautiful Easter tree completed the decorations.
The serving committee was: Sue Die Poole, Woody Poole, Dotty McDonald, Mac McDonald and Ed Harris. The supper was followed by a pleasant social hour.
The next meeting will be April 26 and new members will be initiated. Each lady is to bring a pie, and husbands who are not members will be invited. The meeting will be followed by a "Get Acquainted" party.
