GV WOMEN HAVE
RECENT MEETING

Garden Valley Women's Club met recently at the clubhouse with Addie Schneider as hostess. A bouquet of spring flowers centered the officer's table. An Easter egg tree, flanked by bunny rabbits and nests, with colored jelly eggs decorated the large table. Pink mats were used on the trays.

A game was played, and final plans were made for the April Fools' Carnival that was held last Saturday evening. Hilda Walters decorated the tables for the affair in the Easter theme. The carnival was a huge success.

Following the business meeting, lovely refreshments were served to: Ethel Bashford, Nettie Woodruff, Bernice Goldader, Sina Johnson, Wilma Pons, Chloe Ritchie, Leila Spray, Mayme Teeter, Carrie Sinclair, Iva Sinclair, Evelyn McLaughlin, Belle Ewens, Mildred Knapp, Elta Warner, Gertrude Hebard and Bertha Bayless.

The next meeting will be April 21 at the clubhouse at 2 p.m. with Wilma Pons hostess.

SUMMER CAMPING
TOPIC THEME
AT LEADERS' MEETING

The April meeting of Camp Fire and Blue Bird leaders, held at the Presbyterian Church social rooms Tuesday afternoon, was concerned primarily with information regarding summer camp. The meeting was called to order by president Helen Niday. A discussion was held as to the success of the "Let Freedom Ring Day." It was unanimously agreed that everyone concerned thoroughly enjoyed themselves and gained much in knowledge and experience.

Entries by Camp Fire and Blue Bird Girls for the coming flower show were encouraged. An announcement was made that Camp Fire Girls are to provide cookies for the Bloodmobile May 18 and 19. Leaders are requested to call the office and tell the amount of cookies their group plans to furnish.

Registration for Camp Tye will start May 1 and will be acceptable any time after that. Camp opens July 10 for five weeks. The first two weeks are for Camp Fire Girls only, including those Blue Birds who will "fly up" prior to camp opening. The third week will be a combination of both Blue Birds and Camp Fire, and the last two weeks, Blue Birds only. The cost is $15 a week. The utmost in safety measures are exercised, and detailed information on all phases of camp will be available in literature form at the office within a few days, for the benefit of parents. Leaders are asked to secure this and see that it is distributed.

Day camping was discussed and encouraged, with the properly advised information on all phases of camp will be available in literature form at the office within a few days, for the benefit of parents. Leaders are asked to secure this and see that it is distributed.

A camp-out day is planned for the May meeting of leaders, and Mrs. Joyce Schermer is chairman of menu, place and transportation. Mrs. Gladys Amundson, executive director, is chairman of the program. Further information will be available on this, when worked out.

Mrs. Norma Mangs was appointed chairman of a "Sing," to be held in the future for the girls.
