Loss of Livestock Feared From Violent Storms

EDMONTON, Alta. — An unusually heavy April snowstorm brought fears Wednesday of heavy losses in cattle and sheep on the Alberta rangeland.

The snow, which began Monday and ranged up to 16 inches in the Calgary area, caught farmers and ranchers off guard. Many had turned their stock out to range pasture during recent warm weather.

F. N. Bell, Calgary district agriculturist, said the "awfulness of the storm and man's care and m. he storm undoubtedly trapped a great number of newborn calves and lambs."

The snow stopped Tuesday in Southern Alberta but continued Wednesday in the Edmonton region.

45 Glide Students Attend Legislature

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY

A school bus took 45 Glide High School juniors and seniors to Salem late last week to watch the State Legislature in action and tour the capitol plant.

Social Science Teacher Mrs. Howard Smith reports the Glide students attended the morning session of the House of Representatives. After lunch, they took a guided tour through the capitol building with a stop in the governor's suite of offices. In the afternoon, they met Sen. Paul Geddes of Roseburg, who explained the legislative procedure. They spent some time in the afternoon in the Senate.

Following the visit to the Senate, several students took a tour of Willamette University and visited downtown Salem.
