

Columbia Bridge Issue Side-Stepped By Army

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army's chief of transportation Thursday side-stepped the issue of whether a bridge across the Columbia River at Astoria, Ore., would be an asset to national defense.

Maj. Gen. John F. Yount told Rep. Mack (R-Wash.) he would want to study the problem before answering.

He recommended, however, that heads of the Oregon and Washington Highway Departments submit to the Federal Bureau of Roads a proposal to place U. S. Highway 101 between Olympia, Wash., and Astoria on the interstate defense highway system.

If so designated, Mack said, the highway and the proposed bridge could share in the 25 billion dollars a pending highway bill would provide for improvement to such roads in the next 10 years.

Mack raised the question during Yount's testimony Thursday before the House Public Works Committee which is conducting a hearing on the highway bill.

SQUEEZY DOES IT—Cartoonists may not like it, but jam-smearing faces on small boys may be going out of style. Gregory Nash shows how easy it is to get the jelly on the bread instead of his cheeks. Jelly in metal tubes like this made a big hit at the National Packaging Show in Chicago.

Free Propaganda Time Exchange Is Proposed

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Rep. John J. Rhodes (R-Ariz.) suggests offering free newspaper space and free broadcast time in this country to Russian propagandists in exchange for a comparable deal in Russia.

Free America and Communism cannot exist in the same world, Rhodes told a collegiate rally of Indiana Republicans Friday night.

"We must pit our way of life against theirs in a struggle for survival," he said. However, he added, to assume war is our only way to win "is to sell our way of life short."

Free Propaganda Time Exchange Is Proposed

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Rep. John J. Rhodes (R-Ariz.) suggests offering free newspaper space and free broadcast time in this country to Russian propagandists in exchange for a comparable deal in Russia.

Free America and Communism cannot exist in the same world, Rhodes told a collegiate rally of Indiana Republicans Friday night.

"We must pit our way of life against theirs in a struggle for survival," he said. However, he added, to assume war is our only way to win "is to sell our way of life short."

Warrant Charges Theft Of Child By His Father

SWEET HOME (AP) — Police Chief Roy Clover said here a search is under way for a man and his 7-year-old son.

A warrant charging child stealing and nonsupport is out for Henry Stockett, who last was employed as a custodian at Stanford University in Palo Alto, Calif. The son is his by a marriage which ended in divorce 3 1/2 years ago.

The boy, Frank Paul Stockett, was picked up at the grade school here by a man answering the father's description. Neither has been seen here since.

The boy had been living with his mother, to whom the court gave custody when the divorce was granted.

Clover said a check with Palo Alto authorities established that Stockett had not re-appeared for his job at Stanford.
