Other high games in the Industrial included Jack Siekman and Joel Coe 243, Bill Harriott 225, Bob Nesbitt 213, Willis 209, Jerry

In the Metropolitan, Jack Hayman rolled a 204 game, Willis had 201 and Walt Roser and Bill Hash had 200's.

Both league leading teams, Roseburg Book Store in the Industrial and Howard's Hardware in the Metropolitan kept comfortable league leads. Roseburg Book was nine points in front and Howard's was eight points ahead of the second place team.

Ezzard Charles Beaten In TKO By 27-Year-Old

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—They call the Miami Beach Auditorium "Uppset Arena" because so many well-known fighters are beaten there. One of the most popular victims is Ezzard Charles.

Last night, an unrated, 27-year-old Negro from Chicago, John Holman, launched a thunderous surprise attack in the fourth round to stop Charles, a 4-1 favorite, on a technical knockout.

"I've got no excuse," Charles said later. "I really blew that one. He was a hard hitter and he wore me down."

It was the second bitter upset for Charles in Miami Beach. Two years ago, in the same auditorium, he was outpointed by Nino Valdes, an unknown Cuban underdog who went on from there to become the top contender for Rocky Marciano's heavyweight crown.

"This won't stop me," said Charles, who still has hopes of winning a third shot at Marciano's title. "I'll keep right on fighting."

Holman dropped Charles in the first round with a right behind the left ear but the 33-year-old former champion was up at the count of three and immediately took command of the fight.

Referee Eddie Cochran stopped the fight at 2:48 of the ninth after Holman had nailed Charles with three straight solid rights to the head and seemed on the verge of putting the ex-champ down for good.

Douglas Tops Cinder Meet

Drain's Larry Brown Sets Pole Vault Mark

Douglas High School dominated winning positions in the eight running events and Drain did the same in the six field events as the Trojans outscored the Warriors 68 1/2 to 53 1/2 in a dual track meet at Douglas Wednesday. It was a makeup meet on a muddy track.

The Trojans of Coach Russ Hawk won seven clear-cut firsts in the running events and tied for another. Drain managed five clear-cut firsts in the field events to Douglas' one field win. The margin of first places proved to be the difference between the two teams.

Two Drain participants turned in the day's noteworthy performance. Bill Henderson won, as customary, in the javelin with a toss of 160-4 and Larry Brown won his specialty with a pole vault of 10-7, highest in the county so far this year.

Brent Strickland led Douglas to its victory with firsts in the 100-yard dash, the low hurdles and a leg of the winning relay team.

George Dusette, Tom Martindale Due To Rematch

After their hectic draw of last Saturday night, Georges Dusette and Tiger Tom Martindale have been rematched this week in the top half of a double main event program. A one-fall or 20-minute special opens the show.

The Dusette-Martindale meeting is the top half of the double main event and is scheduled for the best of three falls or 45 minutes. The first main event, which will be the top half, pits Jerry Woods against Mr. Sakata of Honolulu.

Sakata, the judo-chopped Japanese, is seeking revenge for what happened at the Armory last week. Sakata accidentally chopped Woods last week when the latter was refereeing and the blond Woods promptly lowered the boom on Sakata.

This move enabled Bulldog Curtis to press Sakata for the win, leaving the Oriental madder than blazes.

Woods has been gaining in popularity in Douglas County with his courage and smooth wrestling ability, but many fans figure that he has bitten off more than he can handle this week, however.

This match is slated for one hour or the best of three falls. Don Kindred, the dead-butter from New York, returns after a stay in San Francisco to meet Gino Nicolini in the opening event. Kindred is 20 pounds heavier than his rival, but the popular Nicolini is much faster and younger.

WSC Gets Break, Opens Spring Grid Practice

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—After two delays caused by weather, Coach Al Kircher got spring football practice under way at Washington State College Wednesday and found 23 lettermen among 75 candidates who reported.

The old hands included 16 senior 2-year veterans, which brought the comment from Kircher: "We've got a bigger line and with eight letterman backs, things look more promising than last year at this time."

Indian Tennis Team Again Halted By Rain

Roseburg's tennis team left temperate-like Roseburg Wednesday morning and walked right into a raincloud at Coos Bay-North Bend.

The Indian netmen, eager to get started on their 69th straight victory match, left town amid mist-like conditions and beat a path to Marshfield High for court engagements there in the afternoon.

While the Marshfield courts, it was found on arrival, were well drenched in wetness, an effort was made to labor in neighboring North Bend's four playing cages, where sun shone.

This idea was soon dampened, too. For when the first matches were attempted at 4 p.m., the pursuing mist arrived like baggage at the depot—a little late, but insured.

No rescheduling has been done for the Wednesday rain-out, but the locals were slated to go against Eugene today at home if tarpaulin on one of the courts holds off the current. Saturday, it's back to North Bend.

NCAA Blisters Utah's Coach For 'Deception'

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The NCAA verbally blistered Utah basketball Coach Jack Gardner Wednesday for obtaining players by methods it termed unsportsmanlike and unethical.

It said Gardner "resorted to deception, himself, and encouraged devious and deceptive behavior by advising student-athletes to collaborate in not revealing" to officials they were planning to shift from one school to another.

The action by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.'s policy making council was on an incident two years ago that led to the transfer of two Big Seven Conference basketball players to Utah of the Skyline Conference.

Gardner resigned as head coach at Kansas State College in September, 1953, to take the Utah position.

The council said that during the summer of 1953 Gardner "actively but covertly carried beyond reasonable limits his contact with three Kansas State College varsity basketball players in an obvious effort to persuade them to transfer" to Utah.

Gary Bergen, a Kansas State center, transferred to the Salt Lake City school. A University of Colorado player, Art Bunte, also shifted there. Jerry Jung and Roger Craft went from the K-State athletes involved but they remained at the Kansas college.

Gardner was not available for comment on the NCAA's action.

No fault was found with either the University of Utah or Kansas State by the ethics committee which conducted the investigation.

The committee said the student-athletes "involved were not unknown prospective transfers to be handled in a routine fashion; rather, two of the potential four transfers were among the finest basketball players in the Big Seven Conference."

Bunte and Bergen were instrumental in leading Utah to the Skyline Conference championship last year.

Bill Reinhardt, coach at George Washington University's basketball team, was the quarterback on Oregon's 1951 Rose Bowl team.

OSC Opens Play; Trenches Idaho

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—After two weeks of rainouts, Oregon State played its first Northern Division baseball game Wednesday and made up for the layoff by pounding out 20 hits on the way to a 16-3 victory over Idaho.

By game's end, each Oregon State regular had one hit and four of them had three.

The rout started in the first inning when the Beavers chased in four runs from the offerings of Idaho pitcher Dick Dodel. They added six in the second, two in the fifth, three in the sixth and got the final tally in the eighth.

The Vandals got their six hits off Beaver starter Lowell Pearce. Sophomore Lynn Mohler relieved Pearce in the fifth, when Idaho had loaded the bases, struck out the side, and didn't allow another Idaho hit. Mohler was credited with nine strikeouts during his time on the mound.

Athletics Continue Homers, Win Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It may be those Kansas City steaks, but the Athletics are sprouting biceps and a home run punch. Trouble is, they were better off as puny singles hitters back in Philadelphia.

The A's have swatted 17 home runs so far, yet have won only 5 of 12 games. A year ago, with a mere four homers, they were 7-5. And in '53, with nine home runs, they also were 7-5.

The A's have a three-game winning streak going now, of course, and may be set to pad it. But the 1954 crew had won three straight after their 12th game too.

Bill Renna, Gus Zernial and Bill Wilson connected for homers yesterday as the A's, with a dandy three-hit performance by sore-arm Cloyd Boyer, knocked off the Boston Red Sox 6-2. That left the A's, despite their 5-7 mark, in a tie for sixth place with Washington, just 2 1/2 games behind the White Sox in a surprisingly tight AL race.

Chicago took first by clubbing the New York Yankees 13-4. The Yanks slipped to a second-place tie with Cleveland—only 2 1/2 percentage points back—as the Indians beat Washington 6-5 in 17 innings. Detroit replaced Boston in fourth place by beating Baltimore 11-3.

In the National Brooklyn beat Cincinnati 7-2 last night to stay three games up on Milwaukee. The Braves whipped the New York Giants 9-6 in a day game. Pittsburgh slipped out of the cellar as the Redlegs fell in, beating Chicago 4-1.

Boyer, a St. Louis Cardinals castoff and brother of Redbird Cloyd Boyer, knocked off the Boston Red Sox 6-2. That left the A's, despite their 5-7 mark, in a tie Throneberry's home run as he beat the sagging Red Sox. He walked the bases full in the fifth after Norb Zaehner's leadoff double, and Billy Goodman's sacrifice fly scored the other Boston run.

The White Sox got four-hit relief from Billy Pierce over 6 2/3 innings after Virgil Trucks' departure. Pierce won it with Walt Dropp hammering home three runs with fourth and fifth-inning homers. Sherm Lollar homered for two as the Sox routed Whitey Ford with five runs in the first.

The Yanks also lost hard-hitting Bill Skowron for an indefinite time when he pulled a leg muscle running out a triple. The young first baseman leads the AL with a .431 average.

Cleveland didn't shake off Washington until Bobby Avila lifted a sacrifice fly with the bases loaded and one out in the 17th inning. Both clubs used four hurlers.

Chuck Stobbe lost it and Art Houtteman won it. Mickey Vernon batted in four of the Nats' runs with a three-run homer off starter Early Wynn in the third and a single that tied it in the seventh.

Detroit had a grand-slam from catcher Frank House, his first in the majors, and three free runs to beat the Orioles. Bill Miller walked five in a row for two Tiger runs in the fifth and Lou Kretlow gave up a single before walking three in a row for another gift in the eighth.

Pitching was the big thing in the National League games. Bob Purkey gave up just four hits as Pittsburgh snapped a three-game Chicago winning streak.

At the Polo Grounds, big Gene Conley held the Giants to two hits for eight innings and had a 9-1 lead that withstood a five-run New York rally in the ninth. Five Milwaukee runs chased starter Ruben Gomez in the second and Hank Aaron, Bobby Thomson and Danny O'Connell followed it up with home runs. Willie Mays homered for New York in the second and Hank Thompson capped the two late, too-little heroics with a three-run pinch homer.

Billy Loes had the feeble Redlegs hitless for 5 2/3 innings, then Ed Bailey's single followed an error for Cincinnati's second run.

The first game when Loes walked three and hit another in the second.

The Dodgers got 13 walks, and three runs in the eighth without a hit, off five pitchers. Roy Campanella batting cleanup for the first time this season, drove in two runs with a bases-loaded single off loser Corky Valentine in the fourth.
