MRS. SAND HOSTS COMFORT CLUB AT LOVELY LUNCHEON

A lovely luncheon preceded the meeting of the Elgarose Comfort Club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Zelma Sand.

Plans were made to give a 4th scholarship; a donation for the cancer fund was made; Mrs. Showers gave the annual treasurer's report; Mrs. Hanson installed the following officers: Carol Newman, president; Emilie Hargreaves, vice president; Mrs. Sand, treasurer. The latter presented each officer with a camellia corsage.

Visiting was enjoyed and Mrs. Connie Showers and Mrs. Sand won prizes. The club presented the retiring president, Mrs. Sand, a lovely gift.

Attending were: Sara Holmquist, Thelma Sundberg, Connie Showers, Emilie Hargreaves, Carol Newman and sons; Mable Backlund, Thelma Hanson and Zella Sand. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Holmquist June 1.

FLOSSIE VIRDEN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF LOCAL BPW

Mrs. Flossie Virden was elected to serve as president of the local Business and Professional Women's Club for the year 1955-56. This will be the second time that Mrs. Virden has served the local club, having served as president during the year 1950-51.

Officers elected to serve with Mrs. Virden were: first vice president, Ione Schaffer; second vice president, Virginia Ashcraft; treasurer, Edith Gilmore; recording secretary, Opal Perkins; corresponding secretary, Stella Spencer; and sgt. at arms, Laura Iles.

Mrs. Virden will work to bring about the federation objectives; to elevate the standards for women in business and the professions; to promote the interests of business and professional women; to bring about a spirit of cooperation among the business and professional women of the U.S.; to extend opportunities to business and professional women through education along lines of industrial scientific and vocational activities.

Delegates elected to go to convention May 20-21 at Salem were: Mrs. Flossie Virden, Mrs. Marie Jacobson, Mrs. Nelle Curphy and Miss V. Vivian Logsdon; alternates: Mrs. Emily Judd and Mrs. Golda Nichell. All members are welcome at state convention and should make reservations to go if at all possible. Members need the orientation that business sessions and workshops at the convention provide; to greet old friends, meet new ones and have a closer acquaintance among the business and professional women of the state; to look forward to participating in the transaction of business.

Guests received at this meeting were: Mrs. Lucy Clarenbach, Mrs. Anna C. Logsdon, Mrs. Opal Braber, Cottage Grove; and Mrs. Rapelje.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Priscilla E. Clarenbach, 2000 Flagstaff St. at a merry May-Day party, May 9, 8:00 p.m.

his family to Roseburg and attended to business in Medford. The family returned over the weekend to their home in Yakima, Wash. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

PRETTY WEDDING HELD SATURDAY IN DILLARD CHURCH

A pretty wedding took place Saturday, April 30, at the Methodist Church in Dillard, when Miss Amelia Pearl Harris of Leary, Texas, and Jack Holland formerly of Austin, Texas, and now of Winston were married. The Rev. C. E. Brittain of Winston performed the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The church was decorated with baskets of large pink gladioli and a pair of seven branch candelabra. Paul Holland, brother of the bridegroom, gave the bride in marriage.

The bride came down the aisle in a white net, off the shoulder gown over white brocaded satin with net stole. Her gown was of ballerina length and she wore a net veil that touched her shoulders. She carried a white Bible and an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Paul Holland, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Glen Freeman was best man. Mrs. Glenn Ryder played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Doris Lee Cooksey, who sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly" and at the end of the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer."

An informal reception followed the ceremony at the couple's new apartment on Darrel Street in Winston. The wedding cake was cut and served by the newlyweds. The rooms were decorated with baskets of gladioli and carnations. The bride arrived in Winston, the week of the wedding from her home in Texas. The bridegroom is employed at the Roseburg Lumber Co. in Dillard.

MRS. McFALL IS CHARMING HOSTESS AT SHOWER PARTY

Mrs. William McFall was a charming hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained at her bachelorette party in honor of Betty Shelton and infant son. Friends gathered at 1:30 to honor her with gifts and enjoy the afternoon. Appropriate games were played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Helen Schiermeister, Mrs. Doreen Collins and Mrs. Emma Lee Mickle. Many lovely gifts were placed in the decorated basket and opened by the honored guest, assisted by Mrs. Emma Lee Mickle. A large stork stood guard over all.

Refreshments included the large cake decorated in pink and blue flowers and topped with a baby rattle. Individual candy cups were distributed carrying out the effective color scheme. Those enjoying the party were Mrs. Margie Brown, Mrs. Helen Schiermeister, Mrs. Ruth Mickle, Mrs. Berdie Eason, Mrs. Dorothy Godfrey, Mrs. Edith Bratsch, Mrs. Mary Selby, Mrs. Ethel McCook, Mrs. Zilla Wade, Mrs. Dixie Collins and the hostess, Mrs. McFall.

YONCALLA CLASSES ENTERTAIN THURSDAY AT FASHION-SHOW-TEA

The annual "Mother's Day" tea and fashion show, given each year by members of the home economics classes of Yoncalla High School, was held Thursday afternoon in the high school gym. Back ground music for the floor show was played by Miss Nadine Phillips on her electronic organ. A very fine program was enjoyed, consisting of two numbers by the high school girls' chorus; vocal duet, Misses Mary Thompson and Jean Scott; accordion solo, Sally Baxter.

Miss Jean Scott was m.c. for the fashion show. The freshmen girls modeled aprons and pajamas, which they had made in home economics classes; skirts, blouses and dresses were modeled by the other classes. Lola Hingley and Janet Gillam modeled formal.

During the tea, which followed the program, Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. Avey poured, assisted by Mrs. Blakenstaff and Mrs. Walter Meier. Tea was served from card tables, beautifully decorated with bouquets of spring beauties.

MRS. DON HEGELE IS INSPIRATION FOR SHOWER PARTY

Mrs. Don Hegele of Dillard was the inspiration for a charming surprise pink and blue shower Friday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Jack Myers in Green. Assisting as co-hostess was Mrs. John Meyers of Dillard.

Games were introduced and prizes awarded to Mrs. Arlene Alexander, Mrs. Darlene Duke and Mrs. Mickie Coe from Garden Valley.

The many lovely gifts were placed in a bassinet which was decorated in pink and blue streamers, with a large stork standing guard. The honored guest was assisted by Diantha Sue O'Byrne in opening her gifts.

At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served by the two hostesses from the table centered with an attractive arrangement of colorful tulips and blue hyacinths. The large sheet cake decorated appropriately was served to: Mrs. Mickie Coe, Mrs. Dorothy Murphy, Mrs. Frances Duquette, Mrs. Dorothy Burk, Mrs. Elizabeth Shuck, Mrs. Vera Roberts, Mrs. Nina Lang, Mrs. Adalaide Bault, Mrs. Darlene Duke, Mrs. Myrtle Duke, Mrs. Lillie Alexander, Mrs. Jack Hill, Mrs. Arlene Alexander and the hostesses, Peggy Myers and Mrs. John Myers.
