

MR. AND MRS. JOHN W. RACKLEY JR., above, pose for their wedding picture following their marriage April 25 at 2 p.m. at the Salvation Army with Capt. Baker officiating. The bride, Donna Maxine Gibson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Kreps of this city. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rackley of Roseburg. The bride wore a blue suit with a white carnation corsage. Patricia Crouch, sister of the bride, attired in a green ensemble, and M. Crouch, brother-in-law of the bride, acted as attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Rackley are now at home to their friends on Camas Valley Route, Box 285, Roseburg. Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS H. DAWSON, above, are leaving soon for Manchester, England, on a four-months' vacation, the first they have ever had together. The Dawsons came to Roseburg Nov. 26, 1910, following their marriage Nov. 19, 1910 in Canada. They moved the next summer to Winchester, where Mr. Dawson worked on the Power House. They have resided at their farm-home there ever since. Their trip to England was arranged by the Lewis Travel Service. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Mrs. S. L. Dillard Honored On Birthday

To compliment Mrs. S. L. Dillard on her 83rd birthday anniversary, a charming party was given by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Monday afternoon at the latter's beautiful home on Hawthorne Drive. Yellow and white were used for the lovely tea table decorations.

Lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor from the hostesses and Mrs. Fred A. Knight, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs.

Washington Hughes, Mrs. J. E. Pickett, Mrs. Kate Chamberlain and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The hostess played several organ numbers during the social hour. Later in the afternoon lovely refreshments were served and a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut.

The guest of honor's granddaughter, Mrs. Bill Adair, of Albany, and the latter's daughter, Roberta Lee, called long distance to wish her a "Happy Birthday."

Country Club Guest Day To Be Thursday

Final preparations are being made for the annual spring guest-day bridge-luncheon to be held Thursday, May 12, at 12 o'clock noon at the Roseburg Country Club, when women of the club entertain their friends.

Mrs. Frank Bistak, president, has announced the following committees for the affair: decorations, Mrs. R. R. Parsons, Mrs. O. R. Fritz, Mrs. Edward Murphy. Cards and prizes, Mrs. L. F. Nielsen, Mrs. R. Elwood Smith, Luncheon, Mrs. M. E. Ulschotter and Mrs. George Luoma. Door committee, Mrs. Chester Thompson and Mrs. A. J. Murray. Reservations for the party may be made by calling Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, OR 3-4082 or Mrs. R. Elwood Smith, OR 3-8643. Those making up tables are requested to bring their own cards. Reservations must be in by Tuesday, May 10.

Hardys Entertain Duplicate Bridge Club On Thursday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding entertained their duplicate bridge club Thursday evening at their lovely home on East Lane Street. Camellias and tall tapers graced the serving table, while red carnations formed the living room decorations.

Enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harding were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Coen, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stever.

Alfred Anderson won the high score and tying for second high were Mrs. Stever, Mr. Harding and Mr. Coen.

Following the bridge play, lovely refreshments were served.

Mrs. Caraway is a graduate of U. of O. with a Bachelor of Science degree and of Oregon Normal School. She came to the Roseburg schools in September 1923 and did seventh and eighth grade departmental work for three years at Rose School. When the 6-3-3 system was organized in 1923 she was transferred to Junior High School, where she remained until 1943, at which time she resigned to join Mr. Caraway, who was doing war work in Poland. While in Poland she did substitute work in more than a twenty different schools.

At the conclusion of the war the Caraways returned to Roseburg, where Mrs. Caraway was assigned to Rose School in the primary department. She had found, while doing substitute work, that she preferred the younger children. Since the fall of 1947, she has been happily engaged working with the third graders in Fullerton School. Mrs. Caraway has watched the Roseburg school system grow from a total of forty-five teachers in 1923 to its present two hundred and twenty. She has had approximately 3,000 students in her classes.
