LUTHERAN LADIES AID HAS FINE MEETING AT BUCKINGHAM HOME

St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Cass Buckingham on Walnut Lane with chairman, Vera Wilson, presiding.

The meeting was opened with a reading from the Book of Acts. The executive board's recommendations for use of the projector recently purchased by the group were read and discussed. The annual church cleaning has been postponed until July. Mrs. Stapleton volunteered as chairman of the committee to investigate the purchase of new drapes for the Parish House. Mrs. Leonard requested flowers be brought to the church by noon Saturday. Volunteers to learn the use of the projector are Grace Teater, Vera Wilson, Amanda Ewert and Mrs. Donald Hasbargen. The visiting committee report for the previous month was given by the chairman, Mrs. Sylvester. Mrs. Wilson announced that Pastor Sylvester has been appointed pastoral adviser for the LWML convention.

Pastor Sylvester announced the LWML workshop in Springfield May 18, the theme being "Stewardship in the Home." Two cars will be going from the group. Anyone interested in attending may contact either the pastor or Mrs. Wilson in regard to transportation. Following the business meeting, a sound motion picture, "The Song
