RIVERSDALE MEN PRESENT PROGRAM AT GRANGE MEETING

A lovely program was given at the regular meeting of Riversdale Grange by the men in honor of Mother's Day. A gift was given to the mother with the most children; the youngest mother, and the oldest mother present. A piano solo was played by Sharon Wicks.

The charter was draped in loving memory of brother Ted Melhoff. Degree team captain, Ray Deadmond, presented the first and second degree work to Ed Emery, Agriculture chairman, Hil-da Walters, read a conservation week pledge. W. C. Thurlow and Ray Hampton each spoke on conservation. Mr. Thurlow stressed timber conservation and proper use of water and land. Mr. Hampton also spoke on water and soil resources. He suggested strip farming as one way to help save soil. Norman Olson spoke briefly on a fund which California is appropriating to restore fresh water. Brother Virgil Woodruff, master of Melrose Grange, was a visitor.

After the meeting, refreshments were served by Ray Hampton, Phil Harsh, Jim Meyers and Mark Dunham.
