Days Creek's Bobby Babb, Phil Blomquist and Bill Benner of Yoncalla, two Roseburg entries, Rudy Morgan and Mark Robbins, and Drain's Bill Henderson qualified for Saturday's finals in the state and B track meets at Corvallis Friday.

Babb virtually assured one first place for Douglas County entries when he got off a record-breaking 187-foot 6 5/8 inch javelin throw in Friday's class B preliminaries.

Another Days Creek qualifier, Dick Callender, picked up points for his school when he placed in a six-way tie for third place in the finals of the B high jump. The winning height was a record-breaking 5-11 1/4.

Henderson, the defending Class A district champion and Class B record holder prior to Babb's throw yesterday, was second Friday in the Class A javelin with a preliminary throw of 164-8 1/2. The winning throw was 188 1/2-6 1/2 by Eldon Francis of Medford.

Babb also placed second in the discus with a toss of 133 feet and Benner of Yoncalla was fifth with 122-11 1/4.

Six Records Bested Friday

CORVALLIS (AP) — The 29th annual Oregon High School track and field meet continued here Saturday with championship action in both class A and B divisions.

In Friday's events six records were shattered—two in class A competition and four in the B division for smaller schools.

In the A qualifying events, St. Helens' Duane Marshall, topped the shotput record with a throw of 58 feet, 2 1/4 inches. Jack Moad, Medford, held the old mark with his 193 toss of 57 feet, 8 1/2 inches. Moad, now a University of Oregon star, was stricken with polio this week.

Albany's Bob Amble broke the discus record with a throw of 161 feet, 6 1/2 inches. That was nearly five feet better than the mark he set last year.

In B competition records were set in the two events which were completed Friday. Martia Sharp of Eagle Valley added a tall inch to the high jump mark with a leap of 5 feet, 11 1/4 inches. Bob Babb, Days Creek, threw the javelin 187 feet, 6 5/8 inches to better the old mark by more than 16 feet.

B qualifying records were established by Don Trautman, Concordia, the 440-yard dash, 51.9 seconds, and Bob Duncan, Moro, the 180-yard low hurdles, 79.9.

Defending champion Medford, which qualified 19 men in nine of the meet's 14 events, appeared to be the favorite. Portland's Roosevelt High qualified in six events.

A total of 52 schools were represented in the championship action.

Oregon, OSC Split Baseball Victories

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — The University of Oregon Ducks lost their chance to clinch the Northern Division baseball championship Friday night as they split a doubleheader with Oregon State's Beavers.

Oregon pounded two OSC pitchers for 12 hits in the opener, but lost the nightcap by a 15-7 score when the Beavers took full advantage of 16 hits and four errors.

The two squads wind up their schedules in a doubleheader at Corvallis Saturday. One victory would give the division title to Oregon. OSC must take both games to come out on top.

State Sites Selected For Hoop Tournaments

CORVALLIS (AP) — The Oregon School Activities Assn. Friday selected sites for the three 1956 high school basketball tournaments. All will be held the week of March 12-17.

The class B tourney will go to Baker, the A-w meet to Salem and A-1 continue at Eugene.

Each of the eight districts in the A-1 tourney will be represented by its two top teams. Portland, which has two districts, will be limited to three teams. The other berth will go to the winner of a playoff between the two teams gaining third place in districts 5 and 8.

It's been more than a decade since any manager of the Chicago Cubs could put in a call to the bullpen with confidence. But Hal Jeffcoat, headed for the minors as a washed up outfielder a year ago, almost has skipper Stan Hack relaxing in a rocking chair these days.

Not since Charley Root was a handy have the Cubs had themselves a fireman who plays the part as well as Jeffcoat. And Root left in 1941.

McKim, Lindsey Form Mat Team

After watching him in action for several weeks, popular star Luther Lindsey asked Irish Red McKim to team up with him in an effort to take the Northwest tag team wrestling title away from Bulldog Bud Curtis and Tiger Tom Martindale.

The two will challenge the champions in Saturday night's main event action at the Armory for one hour or the best of three falls to the title.

Two weeks ago, Lindsey and Georges Dusette failed in their bid for the title, but Lindsey has been compelled to feel that the combination of his strength and ring savvy and McKim's speed and fire will make them tough to beat.

McKim, who frankly admits that he has a lot to learn in the pro sports yet, is a fast, tricky Irishman. He won the national AAU wrestling title in 1951. His pet hold is the airplane spin which he used successfully on Jerry Woods last week.

Lindsey and Curtis figure to match full nelsons when they clash inside the ring, Martindale, on the other hand, favors the dreaded backbreaker.

Roger Mackey, the smooth wrestling veteran from Salt Lake City, returns to tangle with popular favorite Jack Kiser in the one hour preliminary Mackey's pet hold is the atomic drop. He has been wrestling in Honolulu and Seattle since leaving here last.

chance when Hack took over last year. Until then, Hal had been just a good fielder, no-hit fly chaser with the Cubs for six years. He used his strong right arm as a pitcher only in batting practice.

It's been barely a year now since Hal won his first major league decision (in eight relief innings vs. Brooklyn, May 8, 1954), but Hack has waved Jeffcoat in 11 times so far this season. And in 23 1/3 innings, Hal has come on to hang up a 5-0 record.

He claimed No. 5 last night at Milwaukee as the surprising Cubs beat the Braves 4-2 on Bob Speake's 10th inning home run. That kept the Bruins in the National league pennant battle, just four percentage points behind the second place New York Giants. Both clubs are 6 1/2 games behind Brooklyn.

The Giants ate into the Dodgers lead by beating Pittsburgh 6-3 on Bill Taylor's pinch homer while Philadelphia and Robin Roberts tagged the Brooks with a fourth straight defeat 5-3. Cincinnati snapped a five-game St. Louis winning streak 10-7, with Smokey Burgess' grand slammer wrecking the Cardinals.

In the American, Detroit peppered Cleveland 1-4 as the New York Yankees got the Indians' lead to a half game by beating Baltimore 7-5. At Chicago, Art Dittmar, for Kansas City, stymied the White Sox 1-0 with a two-hitter. And Washington defeated Boston 3-1.

Roster Trimmed

PORTLAND (AP) — The Portland Beavers of the Coast League trimmed their roster to the limit of 21 allowed by the loop Friday with the release of one player and the sale of another.

The Beavers sold pitcher Don Mossor to St. Paul of the American Association and gave catcher Don Lundberg his outright release.

Mauro and Magy Basgall singled, Bill Gilman walked, Bob Balena scored two runs with his single. Gilman scored on Joe Ginsberg's fly. The same combination did the damage in the second. Portland tallied when Joe Taylor fled to bring in Artie Wilson in the third, and in the fifth Dick Whitman scored on Ed Mickelson's single.

San Diego blasted out four runs in the first on five hits allowed by John Briggs. Al Federoff singled. Milt Smith doubled, Earl Rapp walked, Dick Sisler, Ed Bailey and Dick Faber all singled.

The visitors added another in the sixth and three more in the eighth. Rookie John Carmichael pitched his fourth win in a row. The Solons scored once in the fifth when Jackie Tobin singled in Richie Myers, and again in the ninth off Nanny Fernandez' double.

Captain Jim Moran banged out three of the Seal's 11 hits, and Bob DiPietro drove in three runs with a single and a double. The Angels led 2-1 in the second on singles by Steve Bilko, Bob Coats, Jim Fanning and an infield out. The Seals went ahead 3-2 in the third and got the deciding run in the fourth.

Cal Hogue and Bob Garber allowed the Oaks only two hits, against 10 given up by three Oakland pitchers. The Stars, ahead 3-2 in the seventh, added three more in that frame.

George Metkovich pounded a long fly that scored John Jorgensen for Oakland in the first, and Joe Brovia, who had doubled, tallied in the sixth as Neal bounced into a double play.
