Local News

In Roseburg — Mr. and Mrs. George Stocking are visiting friends in Roseburg. The Stockings now live in Alameda, Calif.

Leave — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boucock and son, Bill, and twin daughters, Carole and Caroleene, of Victoria, B.C., spent the last two days visiting the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Boucock, in Yoncalla, and his nephew, Verdun Boucock, and family, in Roseburg. The Boucocks formerly resided in Roseburg and later in Yoncalla before going to Victoria. Bill just completed his freshman year at University at Vancouver, where he is an honor student.

Return Home — Mrs. Paul Geddes and four daughters, Carole, Paula, Sarah and Debra, are moving back at their home on East Lane Street, Sunday following a stay in Salem during the Legislature session. Mrs. Geddes acted as secretary to her husband, Sen. Paul Geddes, who returned here earlier in the week. The Geddes' eldest daughter, Gayle, remained here during their absence as she is a student at senior high school. Mrs. Geddes is spending this week in Palm Desert and will stop in Los Angeles to visit her brother.

Patterson Signs Bill Affecting Sex Offenders

SALEM (AP) — A bill permitting judges to give life sentences to habitual sex offenders against children was signed into law this week by Gov. Paul Patterson.

Such persons would have their records reviewed by psychiatrists every two years. They would be released when considered cured.

The governor also signed the bill creating a commission to plan a centennial or world's fair for Oregon's 100th anniversary of statehood in 1959.
