Public Invited To Garden Tour-Tea Sunday

The first garden tour in Roseburg open to the general public will be sponsored by the Garden Department of the Roseburg Women's Club Sunday, May 22. Men, women and children are invited. A small charge will be made, which entitles each person attending to visit all six of the gardens and to the tea and musical program at the clubhouse.

Between 1:30 and 3 p.m. the gardens of the Keneth Ford home, 1385 Madrone; Bruce Elliott home, 1314 Madrone; Nobel Goettel home, 954 Riverside Drive, and W. F. Chapman home, 1325 Riverside Drive, will be open. Those desiring to visit these gardens can go at any time they desire to between 1:30 and 3 p.m.

The garden of Miss Rosa B. Parrott (Parrott Place) at the end of South Jackson Street, and the garden of the Frederick J. Porter home, 555 Reservoir Avenue, will be open to the public between 3 and 5 p.m. Miss Parrott's garden is Roseburg's largest private garden.

The clubhouse will be open from 3 to 6 p.m. at which time Jack Donavon, pianist for KVAL radio station in Eugene, and Harmony House will furnish the music.

Mrs. E. G. Young, Mrs. Earl Plummer and Mrs. R. L. Whipple will act as hostesses at the clubhouse. Mrs. H. C. Berg will have charge of the tea table. Special arrangements are being made for decorations for the shadow boxes. Mrs. Earl Bleile and Mrs. Robert Burton are co-chairmen of the event. If this first tour proves successful, members of the club plan to make it an annual event.
