MRS. HOLM HOSTS UMPQUA GROVE AT MONDAY PARTY
 The Umpqua Grove of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle was pleasantly entertained Monday night at a party at the home of Mrs. Bella Holm in Happy Valley. She was assisted by Mrs. Catherine Bemeit, Mrs. Lucy Benson, Mrs. Jessie Thomas and Mrs. Myrtle Glen. Mrs. Velma Albertus introduced several interesting games. Mrs. Elizabeth Godfrey won a prize. The refreshment table was centered with an outstanding arrangement of a cornucopia filled with gaily wrapped packages, each containing notes which were drawn by the guests and stunts performed as forfeit duties.
 Delicious refreshments were served by the committee to a large attendance of Umpqua Grove members.
 Final plans were made for the next regular meeting Monday night, June 6. This special meeting will be a Junior graduation and initiation of new members. State manager, Mrs. Zelma K. Puckett from Portland, will be an honored guest. The refreshment committee for the evening will be Mrs. Velma Albertus, Mrs. Bessie Lounsbury, Mrs. Ann Harlan and Mrs. Gertrude Hess. All members are urged to attend and be prepared to light a candle on the welfare cake. The cast was selected and preparations made for a skit to be enacted at the next meeting under the direction of program chairman, Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst.

RAINBOW GARDEN CLUB AND OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY
 The Rainbow Garden Club held installation of officers and celebrated its third anniversary at an all-day luncheon party Tuesday. The members met at 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Albin Nelson, where the installation of officers was presided over by past president, Mrs. Bessie Nelson. Beautiful corsages were presented to the new officers by Mrs. Mayme Manske. The officers installed were Mrs. Nancy Linna, president; Mrs. Neva Conrad, vice president; and Mrs. Debra Taylor, secretary. Pictures were taken of the ceremony by Mrs. R. O. S. Heinbach.
 The club members then drove to Ford's, where they were served a lovely fried chicken luncheon. The ladies then went on a field trip to a garden in Canyonville. Mrs. Julius Byman has been collecting rare plants for more than forty years, and her quaint old gardens are most interesting to visit.
 Those enjoying the day's outing were Mrs. Connie Nelson, Mrs. Velma Albertus, Mrs. Jean Tabor, Mrs. Eleanor Shigley, Mrs. Mayme Manske, Mrs. Dorothy Emert, Mrs. Nancy Linna, Mrs. Blanche Tipton, Mrs. Marion Harryman, Mrs. Robbie Lee Cooper, Mrs. Myrtle McAlpine, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, Mrs. Neva Conrad and Mrs. Essie Cooper.

SOUTH AMERICA TALK GIVEN BY EVANS AT OAKLAND OES MEET
 The Masons were honored guests when Oakland Eastern Star Chapter met Thursday at the Masonic Hall in Oakland at a six thirty o'clock potluck supper with Mrs. Ada McCall and committee in charge of the dining room. The tables were arranged with beautiful centerpiece of spring flowers. Fifty Masons and Eastern Star members were present. The chapter room was decorated by Mrs. Betty Stearns and Mrs. Lea Carlisle.
 A short business meeting was held after the dinner with worthy matron, Irma Cornish, and worthy patron, Lloyd Cornish, presiding in the East. Visitors of the evening were Frances Martin, worthy matron of North Star Chapter of Drain, and Mr. and Mrs. Moody.
 After the meeting adjourned, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Evans of Roseburg gave a very interesting talk on the trip they made to South America recently, and showed many beautiful articles which they had brought home.
 The next regular meeting of Oakland Chapter will be held Thursday, June 23.

DILLARD CHURCH METS MEETINGS
 The Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold a potluck luncheon meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Roy Gordon on Kent Creek, Dillard.

The Martha and the Mary Circles of the Dillard Methodist Church Women's Society of Christian Service will hold a joint meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The Martha Circle will present a drama entitled "Century of Progress" with Mrs. Willard Lorraine, program chairman, directing. The Mary Circle, carrying out the program theme, "Status of Women" will give illustrated talks on some of the influential positions the modern woman of today will hold. Mrs. F. S. Lansing will be the program leader. The hostesses for refreshments will be Mrs. Bessie Lounsbury, Mrs. Marie Counts and Mrs. W. T. Johnson. The meetings will both be presided over by the newly installed president, Mrs. Eva Nichols.

FAIR OAKS LADIES SET FOOD-BAZAR SALE
 The Lee Williams' and the Harry Nortons' were hosts at the potluck dinner Tuesday night, when the Fair Oaks Grange met at the hall. The tables were nicely arranged with nineteen members and two visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frotcher, of Sutherland Grange enjoying the evening.
 The business meeting was conducted by the master, Fred Brauning, and various matters were discussed. Mrs. Lois King, Home Economic Club chairman, announced that the club would hold a baked food sale and bazaar Saturday, June 4, at Lowell's Dress Shop, and asked every one to be sure and have articles in before eleven o'clock. After the meeting, the degree staff practiced.

UMPQUA GROVE OFFICERS HAVE MONDAY MEETING
 An officer's meeting of Umpqua Grove of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle was held Monday at the home of Mrs. Lucy Benson. Plans were made for ritualistic work for the coming junior graduation, which is to be held Monday evening, June 6, at the Evergreen Grange Hall.
 The drill team members present for rehearsal were Mrs. Beula Gibson, captain; Mrs. Vivian Burgess, Mrs. Maxine Cantwell, Mrs. Margorie Brown, Mrs. Betty Frost, Mrs. Elizabeth Godfrey, Mrs. Jackie Dawson and Mrs. Donna Anderson. The Grove officers present were Mrs. Jessie Thomas, Mrs. Bessie Lounsbury, Mrs. Bella Holm, Mrs. Robbie Lee Cooper, Mrs. Mozelle Welch and the hostess, Mrs. Benson. Refreshments were served at the close of the pleasant evening.

MELROSE GRANGE PRESENTS PROGRAM AT RIVERSDALE
 Everyone present at the Friday meeting of Riversdale Grange enjoyed the lively and entertaining program given by Melrose Grange, which included songs, readings, relay game and group singing.
 Guests of the evening were Howard Cracroft, master of Pomona; and Rubie Bloom, master of Evergreen. Hilda Walters gave a report on peach tree blight during the agriculture report. Legislative chairman, W. D. Love, introduced V. T. Jackson, who reported on activities of the 1955 legislative session and the tax problem. Carl Youngren, county deputy, installed Howard Cracroft as Pomona Master.
 Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Don Haggerty, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLain and Mrs. Pearl Carter.

STELLAR CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT UMPQUA
 Gertrude Hebard and Katherine Roadman were co-hostesses at the former's home, when they entertained the Stellar Club of Oakland. Beautiful spring flowers were used about the rooms.
 Refreshments were served to Dorothy Austan, Ruth Bunch, Olga Beilman, Naomi Riggs, Mary Barker, Helen McFetridge, Betty Stearns, Ruth Bridges, Nadine Stearns, Fern Florey, Betty Early, Juanita Holgate, Iram Cornish, Ada McCall and Deana Bennett.

SUTHERLIN PTA OFFICERS MAKE PLANS
 The Parent Teachers Association of Sutherland met Monday evening at the Senior High School at a gathering of new and old officers to discuss things that had transpired during the year and give information to the retiring officers. Kenneth Knechtel, retiring past president, was presented a lovely rhododendron from the executive board.
 Refreshments were served after the meeting by the committee in charge.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS ENJOY COOK-OUT
 The Wadivick Camp Fire Girls and their leader, Miss Karen Amundson, enjoyed an all day cook-out at Umpqua Park Saturday. The girls prepared breakfast, lunch and dinner, using Camp Fire techniques. Mrs. Gladys Amundson, executive director, assisted in the game leadership. This activity is one of the requirements for completion of woodgatherer's rank.

AMARANTH TO OBSERVE FRIENDSHIP NIGHT AT MEETING FRIDAY
 Douglas Court No. 18, Order of Amaranth, will observe friendship night at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the Masonic Hall. A dinner will precede the meeting at 6:30 p.m. All members and visiting members are urged to attend.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY HELD AT TILLER
 Various 4H Clubs of Tiller held a very successful achievement day last week. Guest speaker was Miss Dorothy Teal, who gave an informative talk on Germany, and showed numerous colored slides.
