Bandit Pleads For Mercy; He Has Wife And Kids

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — As Fred Newman, 20, was walking home late Monday night, a young man about his age stepped out of a parked car, pointed a rifle at him and ordered, "give me your wallet."

Newman flipped the stranger 50 cents and said, "that's all I have."

When the gunman tried to search him, Newman twisted the rifle out of his hands and ran into a nearby apartment house shouting for help. Behind him rose a wall.

"I've got a wife," the bandit beseeched. "I'm only trying to support my wife and kids. Give me back my gun."

Newman didn't, though and the bandit fled.

FAVORS WEST — Taketora Ogata, the man considered most likely to be the next premier of Japan, says he is against a neutral role for his country. Ogata, who heads the Liberal party, also opposes any move to re-establish relations with Russia at this time. "Japan's position must continue to be on the side of the Western democracies," he said recently.

WILL FLY HOME
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — James W. Riddleberger, U.S. ambassador to Yugoslavia, will fly to Washington Wednesday for consultations. It is assumed here the consultations will primarily concern talks last week between President Tito and Soviet leaders seeking reconciliation with Yugoslavia.

Martin And Lewis May Be Splitting Up, Report

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Have Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis decided to split up their successful comedy act?

Film town buzzed with the question Tuesday as Lewis prepared to go east for the premiere of the team's latest opus—and Martin scheduled a trip to Hawaii with his wife.

It was said to be the first time the comic duo had failed to get together for an important opening. Martin, some said, is angling for his own TV show, while Lewis would like to go on a personal appearance tour and play more night clubs.

This is not the first Martin and Lewis feud, but one close friend said it looks like the last.

READY FOR TALKS
LONDON (AP) — North Viet Nam's Communist government says it is ready to talk with the pro-Western regime in South Viet Nam about the 1955 elections to unify the divided country.
