MOTORSHIP SINKS

COPENHAGEN, Denmark — The 5,414-ton Swedish motorship Saivo sank Tuesday 14 miles north-east of Bornholm in the Baltic after colliding in dense fog with the 11,197-ton Panama steamer Windward Islands. The Panama steamer rescued the Swedish crew of 32 and headed for Stockholm.

RACKETEER STABBED

NAPLES, Italy — Frank Frigenti, deported U.S. racketeer, was taken to a hospital with stab wounds Monday night and put under arrest. Police said he would be held pending investigation of several $100 travelers' checks found in his pockets at the hospital. Officers said they were believed stolen. Antonio Piazzi, like Frigenti an Egyptian-born Italian, was arrested on a charge of stabbing the former Brooklyn mobster.
