French Report Program For Settling Unrest

PARIS (AP)—A program aimed at combating nationalist unrest in Algeria was presented to the French government Tuesday by Gen. Jacques Soustelle, governor of the North African territory. Algeria has been plagued for months by terrorist murders, shootings and arson.

Although no details of Soustelle's plan were disclosed officially, it reportedly includes proposals for a series of large hydroelectric projects and the distribution of food surpluses to the poor.

TELL OF ORDEAL—Four American airmen released by Chinese Reds after two years in captivity, tell their story to newsmen upon their arrival in Honolulu where they were to be reunited with their families. First Degree Murder Charge Filed On Woman

HEPPNER (AP)—Mrs. Anne Perkins Avent, 38, accused of the fatal stabbing of attorney Dellmore Lessard Saturday, was charged with first degree murder at a pre-arraignment hearing Monday.

Lessard, 57, of Portland, was shot Saturday in a cafe where he had gone to talk to Mrs. Avent about the custody of her son by a former husband. Lessard was representing the former husband.

Mrs. Avent was a waitress in the cafe.

Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman said the woman told him she shot Lessard because he had threatened to take the 13-year-old boy, Kim, away from her.
