in the weeklong series at San Diego. They dropped the series opener, 4-1. Tuesday night, however, and Wednesday were seven games back.

Oakland continued on the warpath, slapping San Francisco, 5-2. Hollywood moved from seventh to fifth by knocking over Los Angeles, 2-1, and Portland dropped into the Stars' spot by losing to lowly Sacramento, 6-4.

Eddie Erault hurled host San Diego to victory allowing Seattle seven scattered blows.

Losers Erault Blackwell, picked up from San Francisco Monday walked five and gave seven hits.

Julio Becquer drove in three Padres runs with two singles and a sacrifice fly.

The rainiers' lone score came in the sixth on a homer by Billy Glynn.

Sacramento, getting dusty in the cellar, jumped into the lead over Portland in the first inning with a bases empty homer by Richie Myers. The Solons piled up five more in the seventh on five hits, a walk and a fielder's choice.

The visiting Beavers scored three in the eighth on three singles, a walk and a force out.

Those St. Louis Cardinals may be only in fifth place, but with Stan Musial starting to hit again, things may be getting better any day now.

Stan had his usual slow start so far, but he's perked up when the Cards needed him most. He's up to .317 as of today, moving up in a 13-game revival in which he's hit 37.

Aided Cards
 It was Musial who in early May kept the Cards from sinking into seventh place by getting 3 for 5 against Philadelphia in a 6-5 St. Louis victory. On May 27, the day he started his current upswing, he had 2 for 3 as the Cards beat Cincinnati 7-4 and jumped to fifth.

Then on May 29, once again in sixth, the Cards pulled back into fifth by beating the Redlegs 7-2. Musial had just one hit—but it was a three-run homer.

Last night, the Redbirds again were on the verge of slipping into seventh place. And voila! Musial smacked 3 for 5, drove in three runs and scored himself in a 5-4 triumph over the Phils.

That eased the Cardinals into a fifth-place tie with Cincinnati after the Redlegs had been blanked by the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers 4-0.

Ahead By Eight
 Brooklyn stayed eight games up as the runner-up Chicago Cubs came from behind with four runs in the sixth to beat Pittsburgh 4-3 while the resurrected Milwaukee Braves knocked New York's Giants out of third 13-4.

In the American, the New York Yankees remained 4 1/2 games out front while losing to Detroit 4-3 in 12 innings. The Chicago White Sox—rained out in their game with Baltimore—slipped into second place .505 percentage points ahead of Cleveland as the Indians lost to Boston 9-5.

The only other AL action went to Washington, with the Senators sweeping a two-night twinbill at Kansas City 3-2 and 1-3.

Spokane's chances of leaving the league cellar with a 7-2 triumph over the Indians, Yakima had the night off.

Danny Holden's bases-loaded triple was the big blow of Salem's big ninth inning at Wenatchee. All told, the Senators used five hits including the triple, three walks, an error and a hit batsman to put the crusher on the Chiefs. Wenatchee led 7-6 going into the inning.

Ad Satalich gave up three hits and two runs on his first four pitches and Tri-City went on to even the series at Eugene at a win apiece. The Braves picked up another run in the third and four more in the fifth on three hits, a sacrifice and an error. Tri-City pitcher Ralph Burns struck out six and walked two in his winning effort.

GOP Shatters Democrat Jinx

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republicans scrambled to a 12-4 victory at Griffith Stadium Tuesday night to break a seven-year Democratic winning streak in the congressional baseball series.

Scramble is a fairly apt word. The Republicans had the benefit of six errors of record and numerous others that didn't go on the official scorecard.

Additionally, Rep. Torbert MacDonald of Massachusetts and his successors on the mound for the Democrats gave up nine bases on balls. Republican hitters were credited with nine safeties, many of them gifts of a generous scorer.

The Democrats' seven hits led to four runs as Rep. Glenn Davis of Wisconsin pitched himself out of a series of jams. None of the pitchers seemed able to control base-runners once they reached first. There were 12 stolen bases.

The linescore:
 Republicans 332 31-12 9 3
 Democrats 000 10-4 7 6
 Davis (Wis) and Curtis (Mo), Coon (Ore) (5); Macdonald (Mass), Ashley (Ohio) (4); Addison (N.Y.) (5); McCarthy (Minn) 5 and Clark (Pa).

IN TROUBLE?

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP)—The fate of the new Class B northwest Baseball League may be at stake at an emergency meeting Tuesday, refused to discuss its purpose other than to say directors "want to look at the future" of the seven-team circuit.

However, sources close to the league said the directors are concerned about attendance at Lewiston, Spokane and Yakima.

Spokane's chances of leaving the league cellar with a 7-2 triumph over the Indians, Yakima had the night off.

Danny Holden's bases-loaded triple was the big blow of Salem's big ninth inning at Wenatchee. All told, the Senators used five hits including the triple, three walks, an error and a hit batsman to put the crusher on the Chiefs. Wenatchee led 7-6 going into the inning.

Don Nye, Mary Circle Win Keg Doubles Play

Don Nye and Mary Circle were high in mixed doubles Tuesday night with a total of 1,154.

Second place went to John and Carmen Donovan with 1,131 and third was taken by Vi and Bo Boucock with 1,109.

Jack Hayman had individual highs of 554 series and 312 game. For the ladies, Carmea Donovan rolled a 548 series and Lucille Shepherd scored a 385 game.
