FOUR OF THE GRANDCHILDREN of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar are pictured above at the golden wedding celebration. Left to right: Mary Ann Watson, Ross McKillop, Martha Gay and Laurence Watson. A granddaughter, Susan McKillop, of Long Beach, Calif., was unable to attend because of being in school.

THE HONORED COUPLE, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, stand at the serving table centered by the tiered wedding cake decorated with pale yellow rosebuds and wedding bells. Tiny nosegays of pink rosebuds and ruffled pink maline encircled the cake.

PRESIDING at the serving table during the first hour of the golden wedding reception were Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, above left; Mrs. C. S. Heinline and Mrs. D. B. Bubar, a sister-in-law of the honored couple.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

NEARLY 200 friends and relatives called on Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tyler Bubar Sunday afternoon between two and five o'clock at their home on South Chadwick Street to congratulate them on their golden wedding anniversary and wish them continued good health and happiness.

Calla-lilies and rose-colored lupine formed the bouquet in the reception hall, while the living room fireplace mantle was decorated with a long arrangement of white stock and yellow carnations. Artistic arrangements were used about the dining room, while the serving table was centered with a tiered wedding cake decorated in yellow rosebuds and wedding bells, encircled by nosegays of pink rosbuds and pink maline.

Mr. and Mrs. Bubar received with their two daughters, Mrs. D. R. McKillop and Mrs. Larry P. Watson. Mrs. Henry Lebacken greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. E. O. Rickli had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. A. B. Taylor and Mrs. R. L. Whipple were co-hostesses and were assisted by Mrs. Marie Hulick and Mrs. Elma Goodman. Alternating in pouring were Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. A. C. Crofts, Mrs. Harry S. Black, Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. Eugene J. Sullivan and serving were, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. T. R. Burr and Mrs. Donald Kelley. The decorations were arranged by Mrs. Horace C. Berg and Mrs. A. J. Ellison.

For the occasion, Mrs. Bubar wore an afternoon gown of blue lace studded with rhinestones. Her corsage was a large purple orchid. Mrs. McKillop wore a white nylon frock and Mrs. Watson wore navy blue.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. D. R. McKillop and son, Ross, of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. William Jeppesen, El Segundo, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Larry P. Watson and children, Mary Ann, Martha Gay and Laurence, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Crofts, Scappoose; Mr. and Mrs. Pete J. Crofts, Washougal, Wash.; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Walker, Portland; Mrs. Bill Gendron and Mrs. John Coleman, Kirkland, Wash., and Mrs. Guy Cordon, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Bubar, nee Mary E. Akeley, was born in Presque Isle, Maine, and Mr. Bubar was born in Blain Maine. They were married June 7, 1905, in Blaine, Maine, and moved to Roseburg in 1916. They spent their married life in the jewelry business and retired 10 years ago. They have two daughters, Mrs. D. R. (Pauline) McKillop of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Larry (Gay) Watson of Eugene. They have five grandchildren: Laurence, Mary Ann and Martha Gay Watson of Eugene, and Susan Ann and Donald Ross McKillop of Long Beach, Calif.

All Pictures On This Page By "Chris" Of Fredrickson's Photto Lab

MR. AND MRS. P. T. BUBAR are pictured above with their two daughters, Mrs. D. R. (Pauline) McKillop, left, of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Larry (Gay) Watson, of Eugene. At the right are some of the out-of-town close friends coming for the affair. Front row: Mrs. Arthur C. Crofts, Scapoose; Mrs. Charles Walker, Portland; Mrs. William Jeppesen, El Segundo, Calif.; Mrs. Pete J. Crofts and Pete J. Crofts, Washougal, Wash. Standing at back are Arthur C. Crofts of Scapoose and Dr. Charles Walker, Portland.