St. Paul's Ladies Aid Has Interesting Meeting

The Ladies Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held a very interesting meeting and pleasant social hour Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Herman Hasbargen in Allegheny.

Mrs. William S. Crews gave an inspiring talk on the topic, "Church Publicity." Various members gave interesting reports on the Christian Home Workshop they attended in Springfield May 18. In all these reports it was stressed that Christ should be the center of all activities in the church and in the home.

During the business session Mrs. Stapleton, chairman of the committee on new drapes for the parish house showed samples of materials and explained what would be available.

Mrs. Lewis Wilson presided over the business meeting. It was announced the Vacation Bible School will be conducted at the church June 20-July 1. Group singing was enjoyed. During the social hour visiting was enjoyed and lovely refreshments were served. The long serving table was centered by a large bouquet of colorful summer flowers with matching bouquets placed about the room.

Mrs. Hasbargen was assisted in serving by her three daughters, Mrs. William Crews, Mrs. Vernon Teeter and Miss Clara Hasbargen. There were 22 members and guests enjoying the evening.

The next meeting will be July 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Simon, 1201 Center St., with Mrs. George Ewert as joint hostess. All women of the congregation are most cordially invited. Anyone desiring transportation is asked to call 3-3121 or 3-7212.
