Lumber Truck, Car Collide At Lone Rock Covered Bridge

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY

A collision between a loaded lumber truck and a sedan Tuesday at 11:30 a.m., at the Lone Rock covered bridge, resulted in heavy damages to the car driven by Mrs. Mike Mullin. The new Lone Rock bridge has been closed for over two weeks for painting.

Mrs. Mullin accompanied by her mother, Mrs. George Neal, was making the turn onto the bridge at the south end, as the lumber truck owned by E. L. Paris and driving by John Zenor, was coming out of the entrance. Mrs. Mullin applied the brakes but the car skidded in the soft gravel directly into the truck. There were no injuries.

Return Home

Movie Star's Waist Measurement 17 Inches

ROME (AP) — Think your waist is slender? Well, they measured Gina Lollobrigida's Saturday. It is 17 inches.

"Just the size of my shirt collar," commented husband Milko Skofic.

The Italian film star normally refuses to give out her measurements — usually estimated at 37-inch bust and 36-inch hips. Lately, her always small waist has shrunk smaller under a daily regime of 10 hours before the cameras, then a fencing lesson and then a trapeze lesson — these last for forthcoming pictures.

Even Gina and her husband grew curious so out came the tape measure.

Wilbur Students Have Many Picnics

By ODY MOORHOUS

A number of room mothers and other parents attended the school picnics last week. The Winchester School held its picnic at Umpqua Park, Wednesday with about 200 children and parents in attendance.

Their third, fifth and sixth grades of Wilbur school went to the Veteran's grounds Thurs. for a day of recreation and picnics.

Wilbur first and second graders had a picnic Thursday on the school grounds. Ice cream was furnished to the latter group by the Wilbur Community Club.

Shakespearean Festival Rehearsals Started

Work on the 1955 Oregon Shakespearean Festival started Saturday in Ashland. The season begins Aug. 1 and concludes Aug. 31.

Auditions for roles in the five plays slated for production will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The season's repertoire includes two comedies, "A Midsummers Night's Dream" and "All's Well That Ends Well;" a tragedy, "Macbeth," and a historical play, "Henry VI, Part 3."

In addition two performances of the rarely performed tragedy, "Timon of Athens," will be presented. The plays will be shown in a nightly rotation. Visitors may see the entire series by staying in Ashland four days. Southern Oregon College staff members Angus Bowmer will supervise festival planning.

Radioactive Pitchblend

WHAT YOU WANT, its got. $6,500. buys it. Almost new, neatly and solidly put together, modern, 2 bedroom home plus a long home-like garage with a guest, play or storage room added. A unique deal. Large corner lot. A true color Oregon view anyway you look. Positively the most!

Why Pay $19,000.00??

OWNERS BUMPED their heads; they say, "sell their $19,000 modern, 3 bedroom home, with fireplace, attached garage on one acre joining N. Umpqua at $14,750." Town property trades considered. What's other homes got that this one ain't got: they ain't, thats for sure. Suggestion: HURRY.

COME VISIT: we may have just the property you want. Example: Ranches, farms, acreages, grocery stores, cafes, rental properties, large timber tracts, all sorts of trading properties, etc.
