

Canyonville Adventists Scheduled Bible School

Canyonville Seventh-Day Adventists will hold a daily vacation Bible School in the western theme, according to Mrs. D. L. Daniels, at the Surprise Valley SDA hall beginning June 13 from 9 a. m. until noon.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTERE, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (identure breath). Get FASTERE at any drug counter.

Canyonville Lions Club Calendars Will Be On Sale

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR Canyonville Lions Club sponsored birthday calendars will be mailed on or before Aug. 1, according to Lions club members. Additional calendars will be on sale for those who neglected to order one. Mrs. Jennie Blowers from Washington is visiting her daughter and family, the Frank Adamsons. Mrs. Freda Daniels and children, Anne, Dick and David, have moved to their new home in the Rodman addition purchased from the Rev. Mark Browning. Don Smith of Barstow, Calif., stopped in to visit Ladd Womack Saturday. The young men were service friends. Dinner guests at the John Hamilton home Sunday were Mrs. Hamilton's brother and family, the Leonard Swifts of Roseburg. Joe Schumacher, esquire of Roseburg POE, attended the Elks state convention at Ashland last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Joe Schumacher, who returned home from the TB hospital in Salem several weeks ago, continues to improve in health. Mr. Schumacher said. Leon Neis fished the Little Deschutes river, Memorial weekend. He and his party took 17 German brown trout, one of which was 19 inches long. The Neis family had been visiting relatives in the Eugene area and picnicked Memorial Day at Black Canyon Forest Camp above Lookout Point dam. This past Sunday the Neises visited the Glenn Gilmores at Glendale. The Gilmores are former Canyonville residents. Work has begun on the paint-up repair and clean up campaign at the Canyonville Methodist church with the Rev. Ernestine Hitchcock setting a good example by painting the porch ceiling herself Monday.

James and Larry Fuller are laying new floor on the porch replacing that which was worn out. Young people of the church are also recruited to help with the painting program. Two CBA alumni are in Canyonville for the summer vacationing from their college studies. James Andrew, who has been attending school at Lakeland, Fla., returned to work again for Einar Engen. Allan Hathaway will spend the summer here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Hathaway. He attends school in Tennessee.

Oregon. This is the first time this honor has been awarded to a Canyonville student, according to O. J. Monger, superintendent of Canyonville High School. Miss Ballantyne is an accomplished flutist. She played at the Canyonville commencement exercises. She is the granddaughter of the H. L. Dunings of Canyonville, with whom she makes her home. Leonard John, who has been elected as the full time band director for Canyonville school next year, is largely responsible for securing this scholarship, according to Monger.
